FOE LOSES ARMENTIERES IN NEW RETREAT; TURKS WARN BERLIN OF PLANS FOR PEACE

PORTE IS BEGGED BY KAISER TO STAY LOYAL

London Stock Exchange Hears Report That Actual Negotiations Looking to Peace Are Started by the Sultan

GERMANS FIGURE ON DEFECTION OF AUSTRIA

Teutons Will Be Unable to Whip Ottoman Empire Into Line in Opinion of Best Informed Diplomats in U.S.

LONDON, Oct. 3, 3:10 p. m.—Negotiations for peace by Turkey are reported under way, according to a wireless press report from Rome received this afternoon.

Turkish emissaries are reported en route to Aleppo and Talaat Pasha is said to have left Constantinople.

The evacuation of Rumania and Albania by the troops of the Central Powers continues. General von Mackensen is establishing his headquarters in Transylvania.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The Turkish forces in Persia have been ordered by Constantinople to leave at once, according to a report reaching the State Department today from Teheran. This action was taken, it is said, because of the disaster to the Turkish troops in Palestine. It is also reported that the British probably will re-occupy Baku.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Turkey has notified Germany of her intention to make peace, according to a Zurich despatch to the Daily News today. Germany's reply, which was described as "long, menacing and pleading," promised Turkey that Bulgarian soil would be occupied by Germans.

Ever since Bulgaria collapsed the reports that Turkey would drop out have become stronger and more circumstantial. Turkey is in a critical state and has been for some time.

General Allenby's victorious army in Palestine has taken Damascus and is advancing northward against Aleppo, the Turks' chief base of operations. Another British army in Mesopotamia has advanced beyond Bagdad.

ORIENT RAILWAY TO BE OBJECTIVE.

With Bulgaria out of the conflict the way has been opened for a drive direct upon Constantinople and the Orient railway, the only direct line of communication between Turkey and the central empires.

The Turkish situation looking toward surrender was described in well informed diplomatic circles here this morning as "moving," whereas in the same quarters two days ago it was declared to be stagnant. No official action, however, has been taken.

There was a strong report current on the stock market this afternoon that Turkey had surrendered unconditionally to the allies.

At the foreign office it was stated there is no confirmation of the rumor.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The German censor at Berlin permits the German press to print articles dwelling on the probable situation of Germany in the case that Austria should be forced to lay down her arms under pressure, according to advices reaching Paris. It is declared that if Austria-Hungary should give in, Bavaria might follow her example.

GERMAN UNABLE TO KEEP TURKEY IN LINE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Germany will be unable to hold Turkey in line. Official quarters were convinced of this fact today when word reached the capital that the kaiser's government has protested against the sultan suing for peace.

The report that there are 250,000 German troops at Sofia which could be sent to the aid of the Sultan is characterized by the military observers here who know as simply a German invention.

PEACE LEADER, MAXIMILIAN, IS MADE GERMAN CHANCELLOR

Von Hertling's Successor On Record for Anglo-Saxon Terms; Reichstag to Meet to Hear New Declaration

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 3. — Prince Maximilian of Baden has been named German Imperial Chancellor, according to the Zeitung Ammittag of Berlin.

A council meeting took place at the chancellor's palace in Berlin last evening, according to advices received here. Emperor William presided and the meeting was attended by Field Marshal von Hindenburg, who had come to Berlin with the emperor. Former Chancellor von Hertling, Vice-Chancellor von Payer and several state secretaries were in attendance.

Prince Maximilian is heir to the throne of the Grand Duchy of Baden. He was born July 10, 1867. For some years he had been recognized as the leader of the Delbrueck group of German moderates, and upon the fall of Imperial Chancellor Michaelis, November 1, 1917, he was put forward as the moderates' candidate for the chancellorship. His name, however, did not go before the emperor, as Prince Maximilian objected for dynastic reasons.

PAN-GERMANS ARE SHOCKED BY INTERVIEW.

Early in the present year Prince Maximilian gave a semi-official interview in which he outlined his views on Germany's peace terms. His statement was a rude shock to the Pan-Germans in that he advocated abandonment of all ideas of conquest. He advocated an Anglo-Saxon peace, in the sense that the German Empire must serve as a bulwark in protecting the western nations from the spread of Russian Bolshevikism.

Prince Maximilian's wife was formerly Marie Louise, Duchess of Brunswick-Lunebourg, and bears the title of Princess Royal of Great Britain and Ireland.

GERARD HAS PRAISE FOR NEW CHANCELLOR.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Prince Maximilian of Baden, new German Imperial Chancellor, is a "regular human being," according to James W. Gerard, former American Ambassador to Germany. Mr. Gerard is resting in Los Angeles between dates on a speaking tour for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

"I met Prince Maximilian in Berlin," said Mr. Gerard. "He is a man who knows English perfectly, and is one of the few high Germans who seem to be able to think and believe like an ordinary human being. I saw him with reference to the prisoner question, in which he took great interest. If I recall correctly he went to Stockholm in the interest of the General Red Cross and prison work conference.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 3.—The leaders of the German parties have decided that a plenary session of the Reichstag shall be held Tuesday or Wednesday next, according to German advices. The members will be brought together on this occasion to hear the government statement of its policy.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 3.—The suffrage committee of the Prussian upper house has adopted the government proposal granting a supplementary vote to those citizens 40 years of age and older, according to a Berlin despatch today.

BULGARIAN PRISONERS TO WORK FOR ALLIES.

MILAN, Oct. 3.—Bulgarian prisoners will continue to work for the entente under the armistice terms, the newspaper Secolo learned today, while at the same time Bulgaria must release all entente prisoners. The armistice also provides for the withdrawal of the Austro-German troops from Bulgaria within four weeks.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 3.—Premier Malinoff, speaking from the throne, according to a Sofia despatch, addressed the Bulgarian sobranje (parliament) Monday as follows:

"The general situation rendered formation of my government necessary. My government, supported by the public, has done everything possible to solve the problems imposed upon it.

"We were full of the greatest loyalty toward our allies, but we had no other aim than the discharge of our duty toward our own country and giving it an opportunity to attain an honorable peace which would be commensurate with the grievous sacrifices it has borne. Everything has been done in this sense."

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 3.—Bulgarian deserters, advancing on Sofia, have been driven back by government troops, according to a despatch received by way of Vienna today. Sofia is now out of danger, the despatch said.

IRELAND IS NAMED AS SUCCESSOR TO GORGAS

Surgeon-General of Army to Retire October 5; Popular Member of Medical Corps Named for 4-Year Period

HARRIS TO BECOME ADJUTANT-GENERAL

Eleven Brigadiers Promoted and Eight Captains in Navy Made Temporary Rear-Admirals; Crozier's Name Out

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Major-General Merritte W. Ireland, medical corps, was today nominated by President Wilson to be surgeon-general of the army for the period of four years, beginning October 4, 1918, vice Major-General William C. Gorgas, to be retired on October 5.

Brigadier-General Peter C. Harris was nominated today by President Wilson to be adjutant-general of the army, with the rank of major-general, for a period of four years, beginning September 1, 1918. He succeeds Major-General Henry P. McCain, who recently was appointed to command a division.

WILSON WITHDRAWS CROZIER'S NOMINATION

President Wilson today notified the Senate he had withdrawn the nomination for reappointment as chief of ordnance of Major-General William Crozier. This was submitted December 13 last, but the Senate failed to act upon it.

Eleven brigadier-generals were nominated by President Wilson today to be major-generals for the war period. They are:

Guy Carleton, R. de Cabell, William M. Hay, Frank L. Winn, Edmund Wittenmyer, M. L. Herzy, Henry Jervey, Clement A. Flagler, Charles D. Rhoades, Joseph D. Lietch and Hanson E. Ely.

EIGHT CAPTAINS ARE MADE REAR-ADMIRALS

Eight captains of the navy were nominated to be temporary rear-admirals, as follows:

Newton A. McCully, Henry F. Bryan, Andrew T. Long, Thomas Washington, Guy Hamilton Burrage, Ashley H. Robertson, Carl B. Brittain and Samuel S. Robinson.

CAMP FREMONT, Cal., Oct. 3.—Brigadier-General Joseph D. Lietch, nominated by President Wilson today to be a major-general for the period of the war, is commander of a brigade here and was former commander of Camp Fremont.

Plan Union to Bar Out Huns

By RAYMOND CLAPPER.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Representatives of oppressed nationalities met here today to form a mid-European federation to include subject peoples now living under the shadow of Teutonic domination.

Those represented included:

Czecho-Slovaks, Poles, Ukrainians, Jugo-Slavs, Lithuanians, Finns, Rumanians and Italian Irredentists—sixty-five million people now largely without self-government and political freedom.

Resolutions demanding the dissolution of the Austro-Hungarian empire and formation of a mid-European federation were to be adopted.

The representatives intend to offer the entire morale and resources of their countrymen in Europe to the cause of the allies. Erection of a barrier across the heart of Europe to serve as a wall against German aggression is the immediate aim of the mid-European federation. It will seek to organize a political, military and economic wall along the eastern frontier of Germany.

Forces in America and in Europe are to be co-ordinated to this end, it is declared.

Suffrage Again On Senate's Calendar

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The Federal woman suffrage amendment, which failed in the Senate last Tuesday by two votes less than the requisite two-thirds majority today, was returned to the Senate calendar in position for future action. By a viva voce vote the Senate adopted a motion by Chairman Jones of the suffrage committee for reconsideration of Tuesday's vote.

DIVER SINKS U.S.S. TAMPA OFF BRITAIN; 118 ARE LOST

Former Coast Guard Boat in Convoy Escort Hit by U-Boat in Bristol Channel; All On Board Lose Lives

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The U. S. S. Tampa, formerly a coast guard cutter, was sunk in foreign waters on September 27, with the loss of all on board, it was learned at the navy department today. An official announcement was expected momentarily.

The Tampa is understood to have been engaged in patrol duty in the submarine zone.

Ten officers and 102 enlisted men, in addition to one British officer and five civilian employees, were lost. The boat was torpedoed in the Bristol channel, England, on the night of September 26, the navy department announced today.

Reports to the navy department fail to state that a submarine was sighted, but said that all the evidence indicated that the vessel was the victim of a submarine. She was escorting a convoy and for some reason had run ahead of the other vessels.

At 8:45 an explosion was heard and a search by the other vessels revealed wreckage from the Tampa, with one of her life belts. The bodies of two men in naval uniforms, but unidentified, were found floating on the wreck. The Tampa was commanded by Captain C. Satterlee of the coast guard. The navy department is understood to have cabled for additional details.

Captain C. Satterlee of the coast guard commanded the cutter. The navy's report says an explosion was felt after the Tampa had gone well ahead of the convoy about 8:45 p. m., and that later quantities of wreckage, one of the Tampa's lifebelts and the bodies of two unidentified officers in uniform were found.

Russians to Regain Land From Hun

PETROGRAD, via Stockholm, Oct. 3.—Russians will find a way to win back territory controlled by Germany, President Zinovieff of the Petrograd trade union, promised today.

"The Germans must evacuate Pskov," said Zinovieff. "We will find a way of re-taking all territory Germany has so outrageously devoured.

"There is no reason to notice the Brest-Litovsk and other supplementary treaties, which are only of a provisional character. Comrade Lenine won't even take time to discuss them."

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 3.—War Minister Trotzky, according to the Social Revolutionist newspaper Narodne Dielo of Petrograd, has issued an order that all the women of Kazan be delivered into the hands of the Red Guards.

Kazan, an important junction point of the river Volga, was held for several months by the Czecho-Slovaks. This probably is the pretext for the reported order of Trotzky.

Rumania Plans to Join Allies

PARIS, Oct. 3.—There is a growing belief in Rumania that if the German domination and oppression continued there may be an uprising among the people, particularly if the food ad clothing famine is not relieved. There are many who feel, says a prominent Rumanian who has just returned here from Jassy, that it may not be impossible that the Rumanian army will again take up arms against the central powers. This conviction, said he, is the stronger since the recent decisive victories of the Ilies on the western front.

Already there is grave unrest among the peasants, who are forced by the German agents to work long and laboriously in farm and factory, with scarcely sufficient wages to buy their daily bread. The Germans are thoroughly disliked by all from the royal family down to the humblest peasant.

ALLY ARMY CUTS EAST TO OPEN UP GHENT ROAD

Important Base at Turcoing Is Approached, Further Enveloping Lille, Which Is Being Evacuated by Foe

ROULERS AND MENIN ARE BOTH IN FLAMES

Thrust Continues East in the Direction of Courtrai; Additional Villages Reported Taken; Still Falling Back

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—Plumer's army, fighting on the Belgian front, is reported to be two miles from Turcoing. Despatches from the front state that Menin and Roulers are burning and that the Anglo-Belgian thrust continues in the direction of Courtrai, where the great road to Ghent opens.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Belgian forces on Wednesday improved their position at various points, according to the official statement issued from Belgian headquarters last night. General Plumer's army has captured Gheluwe, near Menin, and LeBizet, just north of Armentieres.

PARIS, Oct. 3 (12:13 p. m.).—The Germans have set fire to the Belgian city of Roulers.

Roulers, which was one of the principal objectives of the previous British drives in Flanders, has been practically surrounded by Belgian and British troops. It is about twelve miles northeast of Ypres.

Evacuation of Belgium, hoped and fought for by the allies through four bitter years, appeared to be under way today.

Field Marshal Haig, in his night communique, announced that the Germans began to retreat on a wide front north and south of the Lassee canal yesterday morning. British troops were pursuing them closely.

Early unofficial reports from various sources stated that virtually a completo withdrawal from Belgium has been contemplated by the German high command for some time.

Belgian troops, according to the latest official reports, have practically surrounded Roulers, while the progress of the Anglo-Belgian armies has necessitated immediate steps for evacuation of the great industrial center of Lille and the submarine bases of Ostend, Bruges and Zeebrugge, regardless of any previous plans of the enemy.

Coincident with the reported withdrawal in Belgium the Germans at the other extreme of the long battle front have begun a retrograde movement between the Meuse and the Argonne forest, according to staff despatches from the American front. These stated the enemy is falling back from his advanced positions to the newly-constructed Kriemhilde-Stellung line, which runs west of Grandpre to the vicinity of Damvillers.

QUARTER MILLION HUNS ARE TAKEN CAPTIVES.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The Allies took 123,036 German prisoners in France and Belgium during September, it was officially announced today. The captives included 120,192 men and 2844 officers.

During the same period the Allies captured 1600 cannon and more than 10,000 machine guns.

From July 15 to September 30 the Allies took prisoners 248,494 men and 5519 officers and captured 3669 cannon and 23,000 machine guns.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 3.—Americans have captured 120 guns of all calibers, 750 trench mortars, more than 300 machine guns, 100 anti-tank guns, thousands of rounds of shell ammunition and millions of rounds of small arms ammunition since September 6.

Loyalty Pledged at B'nai B'rith Meeting

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The diamond jubilee of the Independent Order of Bnai B'rith was brought to a close at a meeting at which loyalty was pledged President Wilson, with cooperation and fealty to the flag. Victor Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, of Omaha, Neb., told in a speech of the sacrifices of the Jew in the present war.

Enemy Front in Northern France Gives Way, Letting Allies Advance Upon Lille

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 3, 3:45 p. m.—(By the Associated Press)—The Germans have fallen back three miles in their retreat along the Lens-Armentieres line, it is reported this afternoon.

In the week ending today the allies have captured 60,000 men and 1000 guns on the western front.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 3, 11 a. m.—(By the Associated Press)—The British launched fresh attacks this morning on a front of nearly six miles, between Sequehart and Bony, northeast of St. Quentin. More ground of the most important nature has been gained. In Flanders further substantial advances have been made.

BERLIN, Oct. 3. (Via London).—Lens was evacuated by the Germans on Tuesday night, the war office announced today.

Armentieres was evacuated the same evening.

In moving from Armentieres and Lens, the official statement says, the Germans occupied rearward positions east of those towns. Yesterday the British bombarded the abandoned positions and then pushed on across the Fleurbaix-La Bassee-Hulluch line.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Field Marshal Haig's forces are reported to have captured Ramicourt, Gouy, Le Catelet and Sequeheart. This has not been officially confirmed. More than 2000 Germans have been taken prisoner today by the British.

LONDON, Oct. 3, 1:45 p. m.—The Germans have begun a new retreat and are now evacuating all of their main defensive works between Lens and Armentieres, th ewar office reported today. This retirement, which was first reported by Field Marshal Haig on Wednesday night, extends over a front of twenty miles. British troops are hotly pursuing the Germans.

The British advanced, the official statement said. The new line extends from Cite St. Auguste, near Lens, to Douvrin, east of La Basse, east of Aubers and west of Bois Grenier. This line is almost straight, running north and south from Lens to Armentieres, on the Franco-Belgian frontier.

British forces renewed their attacks north of St. Quentin this morning.

A German attack north of Cambrai was broken down. More German prisoners have been taken.

(Armentieres is at the top of France, just under the Belgium border, and west of Lille. Lens is 18 miles south of Armentieres and 26 miles northwest of Cambrai.)

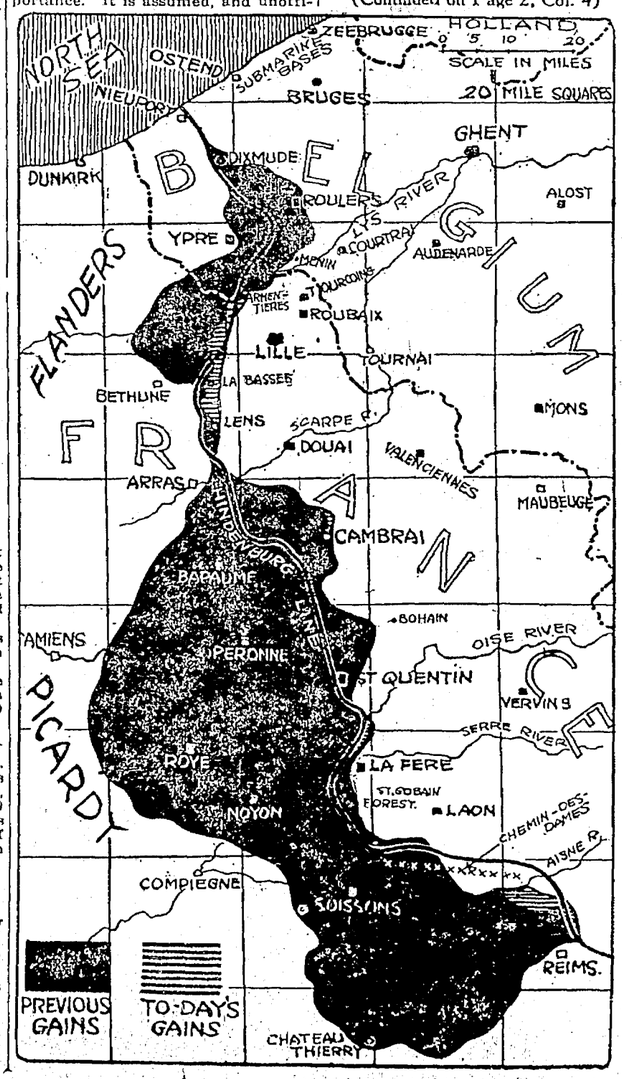

GREAT IMPORTANCE ATTACHES TO RETREAT

Haig's announcement that a German retreat has been begun in La-Bassee sector is commented on as a development of far-reaching importance. It is assumed, and unofficially stated, that the town of La-Bassee has been evacuated. It is also believed that the enemy withdrawal involves Lens and there is a report, too, that the Germans have ordered that Lille be abandoned.

Unconfirmed reports come from Holland that the Germans are preparing to evacuate the Flanders coast and the towns behind it.

The breach in the Hindenburg system between LeCatalet and St. Quentin by the British, Australian and American troops is considered of

REBELLION FEARED IN LOST PROVINCE

Heavy Bombardment Opened On American Front; Huns Begin Backward Movement to New Kriemhilde Line

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

GENEVA, Oct. 3.—German military authorities have begun to remove the inhabitants of Alsace according to the Democrate, in expectation of a Franco-American attack on the frontier.

The inhabitants of twenty villages including Ferrette, Goutavon and Winkle, already have been sent to Bavaria. Some of the villagers have escaped across the Swiss frontier.

Fear of disorder is rampant throughout Alsace-Lorraine. Food is scarce and little fuel is available.

The German authorities in Alsace-Lorraine, the Democrate adds, are afraid of a general uprising in those provinces when the Allies cross the frontier.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 3 (3 a. m.).—A heavy bombardment developed on the American front this morning.

The weather was excellent for observation purposes and range finding. It was clear, crisp, and sunshiny. The clearing weather resulted in increased air activity.

A cold, brisk breeze is blowing and is drying up the mud.

With improved roads troop movements and transport will be made much easier.

WITH THE AMERICANS WEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 3.—The Germans, it was further indicated today, are withdrawing from their advanced positions to the Kriemhilde-Stellung line. Their retreat is protected by a strongly-placed machine gun position in the difficult terrain between their advanced line and their new trenches.

Artillery fighting increased considerably early this morning. The weather continues cold and the roads are drying rapidly, improving fighting conditions.

PARIS, Oct. 3 (noon).—With the British pounding the Germans in the St. Quentin sector, the French renewed their assault of the German positions in Champagne this morning, the war office announced.

The French now hold the important railroad town of Challerange on the eastern edge of the Champagne district.

Powerful German counter-attacks were delivered north of Rheims and in Champagne, but all broke down.

The French have taken Loivre, six miles north of Rheims, extending their lines toward the Aisne.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WITH THE AMERICANS WEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 3.—The Americans have now advanced from seven to eight kilometers (four to four and a half miles) through the tangled Argonne forest since the start of their offensive. This forward movement has been accomplished by smothering machine gun nests, bridging great masses of barbed wire entanglements and dragging up artillery and wagons by hand.

LONDON, Oct. 3. — Australian troops, operating with General Allenby's Palestine army, advanced seventeen miles northeast of Damascus on Wednesday, capturing 1500 Turkish prisoners, two guns and forty machine guns, it was officially announced today.

New Postmasters in California Named

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. — The President this afternoon sent the following nominations to the Senate:

Postmasters, California—A. Bearhope, Oceanside; John L. Steward, Monterey; Charles W. Collins, El Centro; Henry R. Gowe, Los Alamos.

CALLS CHARGE PLOT TO GET HER INFANT

BERKELEY, Oct. 3. — Charging a plot to get possession of her two-months' old baby boy, Mrs. Bernice Mursho, 25 years old, wanted in Tacoma on a charge of forging an endorsement on a check, will fight extradition to the northern city.

Mrs. Mursho is being held at the Berkeley jail pending the arrival of officers from the north. Despite the fact that she admits having, during a "mental lapse" married George Bechtold in San Francisco and gone to Tacoma with him where her baby was born, Mursho declares that the woman is his legal wife and will aid her in fighting her return to the north.

Mrs. Mursho, who was wanted in Tacoma under the name of Bernice Bechtold, is charged with forging Bechtold's name to a pay check for $80. She declares her arrest is a frame-up on the part of the Bechtold family to get possession of her baby. While admitting having endorsed a check with Bechtold's name, she declares she did so at the solicitation of the latter's parents.

Kultur, Powerful Film Drama, Is American Hit

GLADYS BROCKWELL, who is appearing in the screen version of "Kultur," now one of the feature films at the American Theater, where it tells a story of intrigue.

The double program which commenced a four days' engagement at the American theater yesterday was well received by large audiences.

Gladys Brockwell is presented in "Kultur," a powerful screen drama in which the brilliant Fox star gives a splendid portrayal of the character of Countess Griselda von Arenburg, the beautiful young favorite of the aged and disreputable monarch, Franz Josef of Austria.

"Kultur" cannot be classed as a "war play," though it is based on the events that led up to the mighty world conflict and lays bare the diplomatic intrigues and even the private scandals of Teuton royalty. It abounds in thrilling scenes, sensational situations and startling climaxes, and the spectator follows with rapt attention the romance, adventures and life-tragedy of the beautiful woman who ruled the Austrian emperor.

The other feature presented is "Boston Blackie's Little Pal," an original and entertaining screen story in which Bert Lytell assumes the role of "Boston Blackie," accomplished gentleman crook, who in the pursuit of his dangerous vocation encounters startling adventures.

An animated news weekly completes the program.

Recruiting for Marine Corps Resumed Here

Recruiting in the marine corps has been re-opened for volunteer enlistments for men between the ages of 18 and 40 years. Applicants for enlistments in the marine corps must have his registration number, order number, serial number, the division number and street address of his local board and his classification.

Men who have attained the age of 18 years subsequently to the last registration will also be accepted. Men residing on this side of the bay will make their application at the marine corps recruiting station at 927 Broadway.

Sergeant Erbs, who has been in charge of the marine corps recruiting station at 927 Broadway during the past eight months, has been transferred to the headquarters of the marine corps' recruiting station at 320 Market street, San Francisco, and Sergeant Camp, who has been an assistant to Sergeant Erbs has been put in charge of the Oakland station at 927 Broadway.

great importance. Taken in connection with the retreat further north, it is believed that the whole German line is shaking.

Nevertheless, the army is putting up a tremendous resistance and extraordinarily fierce fighting continues. The battle is fluctuating without great changes from Cambrai southward.

The view is taken by the Mail that the breach in the line north of St. Quentin imperils the whole German position. It says that the break in the line was a tremendous feat which has eclipsed everything the British have done in the past. No more furious fighting has occurred during the whole war.

By JOHN DE GANDT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Oct. 3, 10:15 a. m.—General Debeny, attacking the fifteen-mile front between St. Quentin and La Fere, is nearing Berthenicourt (on the Oise, five miles southeast of St. Quentin), and is rapidly outflanking La Fere. The latter town is the northern outpost of the great St. Gobain massif.

Between the Vesle, the Aisne and the Aisne-Marne canal, General Berthelot has cleaned out all the Germans, except in a small area south of Berry-Au-Bac (on the north bank of the Aisne, 11 miles northwest of Rheims), where the French advanced elements are progressing.

French forces continue to advance in the Champagne and Vesle regions, the war office announced today.

The French attack was resumed at daybreak this morning.

Pershing Honors Chinese Boy

San Jose Orientals Celebrate

TRIBUNE BUREAU
34 EAST SANTA CLARA.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 3.—All San Jose Chinatown is celebrating today as a result of the receipt of messages from France announcing that Sing Kee, son of a Chinese merchant of this city, has been awarded the distinguished service cross by General Pershing for extraordinary heroism in action. Sing Kee, by the way, is not related to the Chinese weather prophet of the same name who resides in Santa Clara.

Sing is 23 years old, was born in Saratoga and is the son of Chung Keo, the proprietor of a cigar store at Fourth and Jackson streets. He enlisted with G company, 306th infantry, while on a visit to New York, and has fought in numerous battles and engagements since the American forces arrived at the front. He is the only Chinese in his company and is said to be a favorite with companions. He was seriously injured at one time by mustard gas and spent more than a month in a military hospital at Tours recovering.

Sing was educated in the schools here and speaks and writes excellent English. He was married in China and his wife and baby now live there.

Writing of the mustard attack, he said: "I felt as though I had been hit in the face by a pound of red pepper, it burned my eyes, nose and throat and I could not breathe, the pain was so intense.

"Tell ma not to worry about me though, because I haven't any permanent injuries."

EDITORIAL

The Liberty Loan Committee has requested that we make some mention of the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign now in progress

Oakland is confronted with a very serious problem in attaining her allotment of over 13 million. This allotment, however, is not more than that of other cities of like population, and if other communities go over the top, surely Oakland with its wonderful war prosperity can do as well.

In Santa Clara Valley, with an allotment proportionately as great as Oakland, with tremendous agricultural losses on account of recent rains, with hundreds of their population moving to the coast cities where war activities pay big wages, a record of subscriptions is being made. Not only will Santa Clara County, in spite of its handicap, go over the top, but many other communities similarly handicapped will more than exceed the amount asked of them.

Oakland, therefore, cannot afford, with its tremendous shipbuilding industries, to fail in her task. Every person and organization in this city must be prepared to go the limit in this loan and show the rest of the United States that our prosperity is going right back into the purse of UNCLE SAM.

MUSIC ROLLS

It has been a long time since we said anything about Music Rolls. Probably during war time we think too little of such things as music, and yet music is an important factor in connection with the war.

Music teachers have known for many years that at Bowman's they will find one of the largest assortments of Music Rolls around San Francisco Bay. We have them from $1.50 up and have recently received a nice line of some very new styles.

We Are Agents for Waterman Fountain Pens—All Supplies in Stock

Bring Your Fountain Pen Troubles to Us.

As agents for Waterman Fountain Pens, we carry in stock at all times, not only a complete assortment of all kinds of Waterman pens, both for men and women, but also a complete line of parts, so that we are able to make fountain pen repairs.

Although many fountain pens have come upon the market in the past few years, no pen has ever given the continuous, complete and absolute satisfaction of the Waterman. The latest self-filling Waterman comes as near to perfection as any user of a fountain pen can possibly expect. We sell this new self-filler for $2.50 each and no better pen can be bought for the money. Of course, we have many pens that are attractively decorated in silver and gold (some of them selling as high as $25 each). These higher priced pens are heavier than the $2.50 kind and come in a greater variety of styles.

We also carry fountain pens of many other makes so that if you do not care to pay $2.50 you can get other kinds here for less money, and all of them are guaranteed to give satisfaction. In using a fountain pen by all means use fountain pen ink and not the ordinary writing fluid.

BOWMAN'S LIQUID PETROLATUM

Before the war Russian Oil was used quite generally as an internal lubricant; since the war domestic oils have been perfected which take the place to a large degree of Russian Oil. Among these domestic oils, Bowman's Liquid Petrolatum seems to meet the requirements as near as anything that has been brought to our attention. This is a neutral nonirritating oil, that is in no sense a purgative and is tasteless and odorless. Many doctors in Oakland are recommending Bowman's Liquid Petrolatum and their patients are using it very successfully.

A NEW KIND OF HAIR BRUSH

Are you particular about the kind of a hairbrush you use? We have just received from England a stock of Rubber cushion hairbrushes similar to the old-style wire brushes, except that selected single bristles are used instead of the wire, which splits the hair. These brushes sink right down into the scalp and are far superior to any rubber cushion brushes we have ever seen. Don't forget to see them when you are in the store, as they are probably your ideal of a brush—$1.25.

PREVENT SPANISH INFLUENZA

The Health Authorities have recommended the use of "Dobel's Solution" for the prevention of Spanish Influenza. This solution should be used as a spray night and morning. The epidemic of Spanish Influenza is becoming so serious that no preventative method should be overlooked by the public. If you have children attending school, or if you yourself are liable to be exposed to the germs of this highly contagious disease, then by all means do everything that you can to protect yourself. Dobel's Solution is highly antiseptic and comes in bottles at 25c and 50c.

Atomizers for the above, 75c.

THEATRICAL PEOPLE

Attention, all you Theatrical people!

This store carries a complete assortment of Stein's Theatrical make-up. We not only carry Stein's face powder in all numbers, but grease paints, mascara, rouge, burnt cork, nose putty, toupee wax, Wheatcroft cream, creole cork, clown white, black wax, tooth enamel, lip sticks, Stein's cold cream, etc. We cater to the trade of the profession and will be glad to endeavor to secure, for any one, special articles for theatrical make-up.

YOU OUGHT TO USE A LISTER TOOTH BRUSH

These Brushes Are Dentally Correct

When you buy a toothbrush why not get the best the market affords? For 50c at Bowman's you can get a dentally correct brush, the structure of which has been passed upon by dental authorities who claim that it meets the needs of an ideal toothbrush. These toothbrushes are as near antiseptic as it is possible to make them. This is accomplished by a ventilated back, which allows the air to circulate among the bristles, thus preventing them from accumulating the germs and filth too often found in close bristle toothbrushes. We, of course, carry toothbrushes that can be bought for less than 50c each, but your teeth are worth too much to you to take the chances you do take when you use an inferior toothbrush. Ask for Lister brushes.

WHY DON'T YOU SHAVE YOURSELF?

Now that it costs the price of a thrift stamp to shave a good many men are shaving themselves. A good many more would shave themselves if they knew what to ask for in the line of shaving supplies. For example, an inferior razor, or a poor quality of shaving soap, or a poor shaving brush, might be the reason for the impression that a comfortable home shave is an impossibility. Suppose you drop in and let us show you some of the new styles in Safety Razors, or some strops, such as the barbers use, a real badger brush, or some shaving soap that makes a lather that adds 50% to the comfort of the shave. There is many a man today who thinks that he cannot shave himself, when with the right equipment he could shave himself quickly and comfortably and every time he shaves himself save enough to buy a thrift stamp.

For many years we have made a specialty of shaving supplies and we believe we know what to recommend to the men in doubt of what to select.

PREPARE now to be comfortable on those cold, blowy days.

Phonograph Asked for Vessel's Crew

A United States ship built by Moore & Scott is soon to go into service. The request has come from Ensigns Rawcliffe and C. H. Morgan to the War Camp Community Service for some entertainment facilities for the leisure hours of the one hundred men or more who are to constitute its crew.

A phonograph is especially desired. It should be of the cabinet order, as this kind can be operated more successfully on the vessel in rough weather. Any one who wishes to provide such an instrument may communicate with the office of the War Camp Community Service at the Defenders' Recreation Club, Thirteenth and Harrison streets, or phone Lakeside 2728.

Red Cross Notes

Unless one is willing to personally back up the applicant, Dr. George H. Richardson, division medical advisor, particularly asks that one does not make a recommendation to the Red Cross, for only the fit can be chosen for overseas service. "With every good intention," he says, "it is sometimes easier to give a recommendation than say no, but it clogs the wheels in the machinery for selecting overseas personnel when persons who cannot fill the requirements come recommended and have to be put through the examination." "Be careful in giving a recommendation to a friend for Red Cross overseas service," is the warning from the Pacific Coast Division headquarters.

The official notice from Washington, announcing the safe arrival in France of Edward W. Engs, well known Oakland attorney, was received this morning by Mrs. Engs.

Engs left Oakland a few weeks ago for New York, where h received the for New York, where he received the American Red Cross, and was assigned to duty in France.

The Home Defense Nurses in California, Nevada and Arizona have been called upon by the Bureau of Nursing, Pacific Division, American Red Cross, to organize in preparation to combat a possible outbreak of Spanish influenza. 250 nurses are enrolled in California.

All nurses in the Home Defense group not under military order and those whose date of availability for call has been named later than December 1, are to communicate with their local Red Cross chapter committee or Miss Lillian F. White, director of Bureau of Nursing, Flood Building, San Francisco, in answer to emergency call.

Supplies of gauze masks have been forwarded to the chapters in the Pacific division and will be distributed to nurses sent out on Spanish influenza cases.

Volunteer sorters and packers are needed at the Belgium Drive Depot at Broadway and Thirty-fourth street. A morning, afternoon or all day service will help in properly preparing the quantities of garments for shipment. Clothes will be received through the week but cannot be called for. Packing crates are needed in quantities.

Liquid Air Bombs Used by Germans

BRITISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 3.—The enemy for some time past has been employing liquid air as a substitute for high explosives, which is an indication that he is beginning to feel the heavy losses he has sustained in war material.

SAYS U-BOAT CAMPAIGN IS OUT OF NERVE

"The Germans realize that their submarines are a failure. They are only fighting half-heartedly these days and their surrender before long would not be very much of a surprise."

This declaration of Captain G. B. McDonald, commander of the steamer Frank H. Buck, in the Associated Oil fleet, was made today following his return from seven months spent crossing the seas in the diver zone. Captain McDonald, who is visiting his family at his home, 1341 Bonita street, Berkeley, has one German submarine to his credit and attacks on several others of the kaiser's diver fleet recorded by the war department.

According to Captain McDonald the submarine commanders have lost their daring of the early days of the war.

"Their morale is broken," he says. "They are ready to surrender. Only a few of the older and more daring of the submarine commanders are in the war zone. The rest have shifted their operations to the American coast.

SINKS ONE DIVER.

It took just exactly 29 minutes for McDonald's ship to put one submarine out of business, according to the story told by the Berkeley captain.

"The night before we sunk the submarine we heard two German divers talking by wireless," he said, in relating the story of the sinking. "Their messages were in code, of course, but our operator could tell fro mthe code that they were German ships. This was in mid-Atlantic on September 1. The next morning one of the submarines opened attack, but our artillery was heavier than theirs and in exactly 29 minutes we had finished for one German U-boat. That night we heard the other submarine signaling frantically to its mate, but we knew that it would never get an answer."

Upon entering New York Captain McDonald declares the periscope of another submarine was sighted, but while shots were fired the diver made its escape before any damage was done.

KEEP TO COURSE.

"The greatest evidence that the German submarine commanders have lost their nerve is shown by the fact that they hardly go out of their way to get ships," says Captain McDonald. "They fight if anything comes across their path but they have lost the aggressiveness of the early days of the war. Everyone knows that if German submarines tried hard enough they could undoubtedly make things interesting for the troop ships crossing the Atlantic as they leave New York. They are only half-hearted in their efforts and they realize that the end has come."

Captain McDonald, who is well known in marine circles on the Pacific coast, has been associated with the Associated Oil tanker service for fourteen years. He was transferred to the Atlantic coast in January of this year and has been constantly plying back and forth across the Atlantic carrying oil to the allies. After remaining with his family in this city until Monday Captain McDonald will return to New York to again assume command of his ship.

Law to Stamp Out I. W. W. Is Planned

Carrying acids, Maxim silencers or incendiary material will be a felony in California if the new laws now being perfected by Chief Deputy Attorney General Raymond Benjamin are passed by the legislature. Benjamin is perfecting a series of enactments, planned in cooperation with Governor Stephens.

Offenses now classed as misdemeanors and which, according to Benjamin, result in the I. W. W. offenders being sent to county jails for short terms, are to be raised to the dignity of felonies under his plan.

Women's Court Plan Will Be Discussed

Miss Frances Wilson, the newly appointed assistant district attorney, will speak to the Big Sisters at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, 420 Central Bank building, on "The work a woman finds to do for women in the district attorney's office." After Miss Wilson's talk, the question of the practicability of opening a women's court in Oakland will be discussed.

The establishing of a court of domestic relations at some future date will also be taken up by the Big Sisters and their friends at this meeting. The public is invited to hear this interesting discussion.

Inquest Held Over Child Auto Victim

HAYWARD, Oct. 3.—A coroner's inquest is being held this afternoon over the body of Eugene Bower, the 7-year-old son of George E. Bower, 114 Half avenue, San Leandro, who was struck and instantly killed by an automobile last evening. The lad was riding on a truck and jumped off in the path of a machine driven by Ansey Curry, president of the San Leandro National bank, according to the story related by spectators.

Reynolds in War Job With Rank of Major

L. R. Reynolds, who for the past seven years has been chief auditor of the State Railroad Commission, and under whose guidance the audit of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Southern Pacific, Pacific Gas and Electric, Spring Valley, the United Railroads, Eastbay Water and other important corporations have been made, announced today his appointment to the purchasing division of the War Department at Washington with the rank of major.

Reynolds will leave Sunday. Former president of the Railroad Commission, Max Thelen, is the legal advisor of this department.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BELL OPPOSED TO INSURANCE PLAN

Theodore Bell, independent candidate for governor, has issued a statement in which he makes public his stand on the social insurance question, a proposed constitutional amendment concerning which is to be voted on at the November election. The statement follows:

"The question of social insurance has been injected into the political situation that now confronts us. The people who are interested in this question, whether for or against the proposed amendment to the constitution, are entitled to know right now where I stand on this question.

"I believe that it would be a serious mistake to adopt the amendment. This is no time to enter a field of experimentation that has been rejected by every state in the union that has given it any consideration.

"The principal argument in its favor seems to be that it has worked well in Germany. Lots of things may have worked well in Germany that won't work there in the future. In these times, our first thought should be to lessen and not increase the burden of taxation in California. We must enter an era of strict economy and not a field of experiment and speculation that will add millions of dollars to the load that the people are now carrying. Everybody knows that a dollar now saved in taxation will add a dollar to the financial force that is required to win this war.

"If elected governor of this state, I shall do all in my power to make the state board of health an efficient instrument for the protection of the health of all men, women and children. My experience and observation convince me that an ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure; and the best way to insure good health in the families of California is to give every man and woman an equal opportunity in life, and insure to them a just portion of the wealth that their brain and brawn create. When all workers are insured a living wage, it will mean sanitary homes, adequate clothing, nourishing food and all the other essentials of good health."

Archbishop Takes Over Belmont School

Archbishop Edward Hanna has taken over Belmont Military Academy, which has been one of the best known schools for boys and young men down the peninsula. It was opened on August 28 under the new directorship, and as a Catholic educational institution will be maintained much on the lines of the old school. The purchase of the property gave rise to a rumor to that St. Mary's College in Oakland was to be abandoned and the local property sold. This is emphatically denied by Brother Gregory, president of St. Mary's, and several of the leading Catholics in the Eastbay cities. The Belmont Military Academy will retain its name.

Women usually have a good deal to say about what clothes the men wear; more than they like to admit sometimes.

Women are good judges of quality and style; they know values; right now when they are giving their time and energies to war work, they want to be sure that the men are getting their money's worth in clothes; that they're not wasting the Nation's resources.

HOSPITAL PLANS AWAIT MUSGROVE

The county institutions commission is awaiting the return of Dr. W. E. Musgrove of the University of California hospital in San Francisco before proceeding with the completion of plans for the new hospital recently provided for by the supervisors. Dr. Musgrove, who is recognized as an authority on hospital planning, is attending a convention of hospital superintendents. Meanwhile the survey of the site in East Oakland has been completed by County Surveyor Perry A. Havland and Architect H. H. Meyers is drafting plans.

Dr. W. S. Clark has been appointed by the Alameda County Medical Association to represent it on the advisory committee, constituted to confer with the hospital commission on the building.

Whether or not the new medical building at Arroyo Sanitorium will be constructed at this time will depend upon whether equipment can be secured, it was announced today. The building was provided for in the Arroyo budget and the architect was recently instructed to prepare plans, but it has been learned that difficulty will be encountered in securing equipment.

The other proposed buildings, a service structure, a home for the employees and a children's building will be constructed.

Why Are You Bald? When There's Swissco

Large Trial Bottle Free

Want Hair? Try Swissco.

If you are bald-headed all over or just in spots and patches, or even if you are only on the way to baldness with failing hair or dandruff, you should certainly use SWISSCO. There's nothing else known to us that will give you such surprising and positive results.

SWISSCO grows new hair—there's not a doubt of it. It has done this for many, many others. Why not for you. It is a product representing years of study and scientific research, and thousands of dollars have been spent to produce it. There is no hit or miss guesswork about SWISSCO Hair and Scalp Treatment.

Dandruff, scaly scalp and all scalp troubles are quickly conquered by SWISSCO and falling hair is stopped. Dry, harsh, brittle or splitting hair is soon made soft, pliable, strong and vigorous.

SWISSCO quickly restores color and brilliance to gray or faded hair and stops all hair and scalp troubles.

We'll prove all this! A large trial bottle will be sent prepaid by return mail if you will write to Swissco Hair Treatment Co., 6938, P. O. Square, Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing 10 cents (silver or stamps) to help pay postage, packing, etc.

50-cent and $1.00 size bottles of Swissco are for sale, recommended and distributed in Oakland by Osgood's Druggists, Broadway at 7th street and Washington at 12th street. ALWAYS ASK FOR SWISSCO.—Advertisement.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

PUT STOP TO HALF HOLIDAY IN SHIPYARDS

At a meeting of the Iron Trades Council in San Francisco today, which was attended by the members of the Pacific Coast Council of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, it was ordered that all locals affiliated with the Trades Council observe the 48-hour, straight-time week in the shipyards as requested in a recent telegram to the Oakland Boilermakers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union from the Macy board.

This action effectively disposes of the plan on the part of certain unions affiliated with the Iron Trades Council to take a half-holiday on Saturday. It also nullifies the order recently issued by President McEacheren of the Pacific Coast Council of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders that the unions under its jurisdiction work a 44-hour week only.

The action of the Iron Trades Council followed an address made at the Labor Temple by Congressman John I. Nolan, who has just returned from Washington. In his address Congressman Nolan said that the Macy scale was being held up as it was having the personal consideration of President Wilson and would be delayed until the president had worked out a standardized scale and working hours for all the metal trade workers in the entire country.

Congressman Nolan's speech was received with great enthusiasm and an immediate vote was taken by the assembled delegates to refrain from further controversy or walkouts pending action by the president. This order will be sent by the Iron Trades Council to all affiliated locals today.

CASE OF EGGS "MUCKLE LOSS" FOR THIS LAD

Only a matter of a few eggs—worth $21—will land some one in jail, if the police succeed in discovering the thief who looted the creamery wagon of J. Somerville, an employee of the Cloverdale Creamery, today. Somerville reported that the thief abstracted a case of eggs.

"What's a few eggs worth?" scornfully demanded Sergeant Robert Bruce Forgie, who took the complaint.

"Lemme see!" said the victim. "Gimme a big piece of paper."

He calculated.

"There's two dozen eggs to a frame," he computed, "and there's fifteen frames to the case—that's thirty dozen eggs, and they're worth six bits a dozen. That makes—lemme see—that makes $21!"

Sergeant Robert Bruce Forgie nearly fainted.

"Weel, weel, laddie," he remarked, "it's a muckle loss to ye, a' richt! I'd a never thought a few eggs could mean sae much! We'll pinch the guy!"

Two Elections to Be Held at Once

The Board of Supervisors today adopted a resolution consolidating the city charter amendment election with the November election. The consolidation will permit the use of only one ballot and obviate the necessity for providing separate ballot boxes. The consolidation was done in the interest of economy.

HOUSE BUILDERS WILL HOLD RALLY

A mass meeting of the house builders, architects and realty men of Oakland has been called for Monday, October 7, at 8 p. m., in the Commercial Club by the executive committee of the Oakland Housing Committee, Joseph R. Knowland, chairman. The subject of discussion will be the securing of priority orders for the building of homes.

Up to the present great doubt, uncertainty and confusion have existed in the minds of builders as to what the Government regards as essential in residential construction. That confusion has resulted in the slowing down of house and apartment building at a time when the need is apparently greater than any previous time in the history of Oakland.

The Oakland Housing Committee is an arm of the United States Housing Corporation of the United States Department of Labor and is officially authorized to foster the increase in housing facilities in the Eastbay region.

Official communications received by the committee from Washington indicate that moderate-cost houses are and will be considered "essential," and that priority orders can be secured by well-considered and unified acton along the lines laid down in the official communication; that thereafter builders can go forward with confidence and complete assurance that their work will not be stopped or impeded.

Seattle has just made an application to Washington for a blanket priority order on a thousand houses, 75 per cent of which are to sell for not more than $3500, 15 per cent to sell for not more than $5000 and 10 per cent for not more than $7500.

SAYS CAR SERVICE AMPLE TO YARDS

That street car service to the local shipyards is ample and that there is no excuse for overcrowding cars, which has been blamed for several accidents, is the declaration of W. R. Alberger, general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, in a communication to Mayor John L. Davie dealing with the car situation. Additional facilities will soon supplement the present service, he added.

Alberger's letter disclaimed responsibility on the part of the company for several accidents in which shipworkers have been hurt while riding on roofs or fenders of cars. Davie had made the charge that faulty service was the cause of the trouble.

The letter says, in part:

"We are furnishing sufficient cars to handle the shipyard business. The movement of this traffic in the morning is accomplished without any material crowding, for the reason that shipyard workers board cars at scattering points.

"In the afternoon the shipyard workers all quit work at the same time and in large numbers attempt to board cars, and as usual in all cities where such conditions prevail there is a great rush to board the first departing cars, which results in the cars following moving forward lightly loaded or with plenty of empty carrying capacity.

"As the shipyard forces are increased, we expect to take care of them with sufficient transportation facilities. In addition to the new cars ordered in the east, financed by the government, we are building ten trailers in our own shops. The construction of these trailers has been somewhat delayed, owing to the great difficulty in securing necessary material, but the work is now well under way."

HEART WOUND, BALM SOUGHT BY HUSBAND

While Remy Van Cauwenberghe harked to the call of the gold country, his wife, Josephine Van Cauwenberghe, listened to the love tales of Wallace Mather, according to the suit of Van Cauwenberghe for $25,000 for alienation of affection, filed today.

It was while the plaintiff was away developing his gold claim in Monterey county, according to the plaintiff's attorney, that the defendant "contrived to deprive him of the comfort of his wife's society." It is alleged that he "enticed her away to a separate residence and there maintained her against the will and wish of the plaintiff."

Mather is a mining man of Riverside. According to the attorney, he and the plaintiff had adjoining claims, and it was while Mrs. Cauwenberghe was at the claim that she met Mather.

Seeks Goat Island Ferry to Oakland

W. E. Heathorne filed a letter with the city council today recommending that arrangements be made with the commandant of Yerba Buena Island for a direct ferry service from the island to the foot of Broadway for the accommodation of boys from the training camp who wish to visit Oakland and the Defenders' Club. The matter was referred to Mayor Davie.

A communication from the United States Railroad Administration, signed by W. R. Scott, protesting against the proceedings initiated by the council for the opening of East Twelfth street between Twenty-fifth and Forty-fourth avenues, was referred to Commissioner Soderberg.

COUNCIL WILL PROBE GRAFT PLANT STORY

Probe into the alleged conspiracy to "get" Commissioner Jackson will be undertaken next Monday morning at the regular council meeting, Commissioner W. H. Edwards, who was named in the charges, having today demanded a council investigation. Commissioner Edwards asked that Chief of Police J. H. Nedderman, who made the conspiracy charges, be directed to appear before the council with his witnesses and evidence. His request was granted by the council, and the hearing was set for Monday.

The ordinance passed to print a week ago interchanging Commissioners Edwards and F. F. Jackson came up for final passage today, but action was deferred until next week, when the ordinance passed to print yesterday, making a general shift of Commissioners Jackson, Morse and Soderberg, will come up for final passage. The two ordinances, which conflict with each other in their provisions, will be acted upon at the same time. It is generally believed at the city hall that the vote of yesterday will not be changed, which would mean that the Edwards-Jackson interchange will be voted down, while the ordinance transferring Jackson to the street department, Soderberg to the department of public works, and Morse to the department of public health and safety, replacing Jackson, will be given final passage.

MORSE TO BE CIRCUMSPECT

Thorough survey of the police and other departments by the civil service department will be the first step undertaken by Commissioner Morse when he enters upon his new duties in the department of public health and safety, replacing Jackson, if the general shift ordinance goes through. Morse stated today that he did not intend creating greater confusion and chaos by immediately making drastic changes, but that he would proceed slowly and carefully, making changes only where it could be definitely shown that a better condition could be brought about by such action.

"I am taking this position in the department of public health and safety at a sacrifice of those things which I would much prefer to accomplish in the harbor department," said Morse today. "I have plans for the future in my own department which I am loath to abandon.

"But I have been convinced that it is for the good of the city that something be done to promote greater harmony, and I feel that persons who have the good of the city at heart have given me their best advice when they say that they believe I might accomplish things there better than some other persons, because I have not already aroused animosities that would work against any plan of action, no matter how well they were conceived."

While Commissioner Edwards was making his counter move against the charges of "frame-up" brought against him by Chief Nedderman, half a dozen members of the police department, including some of the best detectives on the force, were combing Oakland for Mrs. H. G. Hooper, 1631 Ninth street, a well known welfare worker, candidate for one of the positions of policewoman recently created, and the chief link in the chain of evidence alleged to connect Commissioner Edwards with the so-called "plot" to trap Commissioner Jackson.

POLICE SEEK IN VAIN

Mrs. Hooper is alleged to have negotiated with Mrs. La Posse, the private detective who revealed the matters on which Nedderman based his conspiracy charges. She is the woman who telephoned to Commissioner Edwards. She is said to be the mysterious "Pete" for whom a warning message was alleged to have been sent from Deputy District Attorney William B. Smith's office, that the police were on the trail of the "plotters."

Mrs. Hooper is a woman of medium height weighing about 190 to 200 pounds. She has been known about the police courts as a welfare worker for many years. But for two days the police have been seeking her, and seeking in vain. Today it was said at the city hall that she had "gone out of town," and that her husband "claimed not to know her whereabouts."

Additional evidence in the alleged conspiracy was given out today by Chief Nedderman. The additional matter was an excerpt from the report of the detectives working on the case. It read as follows:

"Mrs. La Posse stated that at her second visit to the office of Deputy District Attorney William B. Smith, she was introduced to two gentlemen, one of them being Mr. W. H. Edwards, commissioner of finance and revenue—the other gentleman was not a public official. At the time of the introduction, Mr. Smith said to Mr. Edwards: 'This is the woman that I have spoken to you about.' Mr. Smith also requested her at that time to keep the names of the two gentlemen a secret."

DENIES HE WAS THERE

Commissioner Edwards declared today that he had never been in Deputy District Attorney Smith's office. His letter to the council demanding a probe of Chief Nedderman's charges follows:

"The chief of police has made certain statements which he must know are false in every particular, reflecting very seriously upon my reputation, not only as a public official, but as a private citizen.

"I wish now to place this matter in writing before this honorable body, so that official action may be taken and all persons responsible for this attack on my character brought to justice.

"I herewith demand that the chief of police submit to this council all evidence and witnesses in the so-called 'conspiracy case,' so that the proper legal action may be taken.

"Yours very truly,
"(Signed) W. H EDWARDS,
"Commissioner of Revenue and Finance."

Judge Warns Boys Stealing Must Stop

The theft of fifteen automobiles by boys last Saturday night, many of whom were found an dthe boys brought before the Juvenile Court, elicited a warning from Judge Dudley Kinsell that drastic measures will be adopted by him in dealing with such offenses.

The judge has found that the big earnings of boys in war work has had a tendency to extravagant habits, and that when the boys want to show off they appropriate any automobile that is handy and go joyriding.

All Oakland Dogs to Be Kept Muzzled

Orders to all owners of dogs in the city to keep their animals muzzled from now on was issued today by Commissioner of Public Healt hand Safety F. F. Jackson, following the discovery that a dog, found on the streets on September 27, was afflicted with rabies. Dr. Kirby Smith examined the remains of the animal and made the report.

Hooray for Banana Peel "Gets-It"

Only Real Way to Get Rid of Corns.

Which do you prefer—a corn that pulls or a corn that peels? Butchery or blessedness? Only "Gets-It" can get rid of your corn the peel-off way, the blessed way. You dont' need a pull.

"Corns Never Trouble Me, I Use 'Gets-It'"!

Why hump yourself up on the floor and, with your jaws set and eyes popping from pain, jerk and gouge and cut your corns? Why irritate your toes with some salve or wrap your toe into a big, painful bundle with some sticky tape or plaster? Life is too short. Use "Gets-It"—it takes a few seconds to apply and there's no fussing. Corn-pains go. Wear new shoes if you want. Peel off the corn with your fingers—the whole thing, root and all, clear and clean, and it's gone! Only "Gets-It" can do this. Take no chances.

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Oakland at all stores of The Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make any one an enthusiast on inside bathing.—Advertisement.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards's determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame back, wrenching pains, lumbago, sciatica, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired, worn-out feeling, pain in the lower abdomen. These are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they almost instantly attack the poisonous germs that are clogging up your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.—Advertisement.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty)

A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury but care should be exercised to get real delatone.—Advertisement.

Defense Council Bans Lotteries

Rules Made on Raising Funds

Strict supervision of all entertainments and other methods of soliciting funds from the public is to be exercised by the State Council of Defense and by the county organizations subordinate thereto. All war charities are to be coordinated and unnecessary duplications are to be eliminated. The statement issued by the State Council follows:

1.—Permits will not be issued to activities duplicating the work allotted to 1.—Red Cross.
2.—Young Men's Christian Association.
3.—National Catholic War Council.
4.—War Camp Community Service.
5.—Young Women's Christian Association.
6.—Jewish Welfare Board, U. S. Army and Navy.
7.—The Salvation Army.
8.—American Library Association.

These organizations have government recognition. By direction of the President of the United States these activities, excepting the Red Cross, are about to make a joint appeal to the people of this country for the sum of $170,500,000. Appeals must not be made for funds through other agencies covering the same branches of activity.

2.—All local activities for the benefit of the Red Cross and all other war donation activities require a permit from the War Donations Department. The approval of the beneficiary must in all cases be procured before filing application for permit.

WORK IS CLASSIFIED.

3.—War donation activities will be classed as either local activities or non-local activities. Local activities are those whose appeals for funds will be confined within one county. Non-local activities are those which are inter-county. Local activities must apply for permits directly to the county division of the State Council of Defense having jurisdiction of the county to which their activity is confined. The county division will pass upon the application and make recommendation for final approval to the War Donations Department of the State Council of Defense. Non-local activities must make direct application to the War Donations Department of the State Council of Defense.

4.—One hundred per cent of the amount collected from the public must be turned over to the beneficiary.

5.—Every agency seeking contributions from the public must have 1st—Permanent organization, and
2nd—Responsible representatives with the State, through whom strict accountability for the collection and disbursement of funds can be maintained.

Accountability within this State must not only be demonstrated, but the responsibility of any agency without the State through which disbursement is made must also be demonstrated.

BOOKS MUST BE OPEN.

6.—All books of accounts of war donation activities covered by permits from the State Council of Defense, must be open to inspection of the authorized representatives of the War Donations Department.

7.—Appeals for funds for war donation activities cannot be combined with appeals for civilian activities.

8.—Lotteres, raffles and other activities in violation of law will not be permitted. Dissipation of the energies of the patriotically inclined is to be discouraged, and therefore the holding of bazaars, fetes and teas should be discouraged and if possible discountenanced.

9.—Permits must be applied for before the appeal to the public is made and not after or during the appeal.

10.—The demands upon the public and upon the patriotism of the public for war contributions have been such, and will continue to be such, that the giving power of the public must be conserved for the benefit of such organizations as have proved their fitness and have procured national recognition.

These rules will be supplemented and added to from time to time.

ASK WAGE RAISE.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 3.—Demand for a general wage increase for members of the Civic Employees' Union, to take effect October 1, has been made of the city government.

NEWS OF THE SHIPYARDS

Work in the new boiler shop at the Moore Shipbuilding plant is rapidly approaching capacity under the direction of Charles Martin, recently transferred from the foremanship of the riveting and caulking department. Masts and king posts for the new hills are now being regularly turned out. Considerable material for the boiler and pipe shops is beng landed in the yard by Southern Pacific freight service.

Jack Rector, former assistant foreman of the riveting and caulking department at the Moore Shipbuilding plant, has been appointed foreman. He succeeds Charles Martin, transferred to the boiler shop. Rector is in charge of the chipping, caulking, bolting up, drilling and riveting. His assistants are Barney Burke, in charge of chipping and caulking; William Symon of riveting, and Mike Gabbett of bolting up.

Dan Hanlon, president of the Hanlon Shipbuilding Company, was host to a party of employes on the trial trip of the General Wheeler, a 9000-ton steel freighter recently launched at the company's plant. The list of invited guests included all of the yard foremen. Monday evening the members of the Hanlon Shipyard band were the dinner guests of President Hanlon at the Hotel Oakland.

Shear legs, 110 feet high, have been installed on the fitting out wharf at the Bay Point plant of the Pacific Coast Shipbuilding Company. Construction has been started on a tower crane, with an eighty-foot working diameter, given by four booms, on which bull riveting machines will be used. The big electric traveling crane for the machine shop has arrived and will take the place of the steam crane hitherto used. The power house equipment has been increased by the arrival of a 32x19x22 compressor.

Thirty-four buildings are to be erected on the 170-acre site of the Liberty shipyard on the estuary. The Key System spur to the plant is completed with the exception of a small amount of gravel tamping between the ties. Cars will be in operation thereon within ten days. About 2000 men are employed in construction and general work about the plant. Twelve pile drivers are in operation. Additions are constantly being made to the corps of workers. Ten and one-half miles of standard-guage railway tracks are to be laid at the yard. Approximately one-third of this work is underway.

Eight pile drivers are working at the Government's concrete shipyard on the estuary. Three hundred horses and several hundred laborers are leveling the several building sites. Four shipways are under construction. The form for the first concrete ship will be "poured" about October 20.

LABOR NOTES

Pacific Coast headquarters for the Maintenance of Way Employes' Union, which has general offices in Detroit, Mich., has been established in Oakland. All matters pertaining to the coast jurisdiction are now being transacted in this city. The local Maintenance of Way Union was organized several weeks ago and has a membership of nearly five hundred. Meetings are held every Saturday evening in Odd Fellows' hall.

Lee Latham, business agent of Division 192, Street Carmen's Union, is preparing to leave for Washington, where he will lay before the Wage Adjustment Board the matters in dispute between the members of the union and the management of the local street car system. For the past two weeks a committee representing the union has been in conference with the traction officials on the proposed new schedule to go into effect on November 1, at which time the present wage and working agreement expires. All of the minor questions pertaining to the new scale have been adjusted, but the proposed $5 a day wage for an eight-hour day remains unsettled. By agreement, however, this question is to go before the War Labor Board for decision. R. H. Furman, A. D. Bond, B. S. McNamara, A. G. Alvis, J. A. Heck and Lee L. Latham represented the union at the conferences, and the last mentioned is now to represent the organization before the War Labor Board.

The union of guano workers, organized two weeks ago, has installed the following officers: Charles Rodiso, president; S. Lobis, vice-president, and H. Meart, secretary-treasurer. The officers were inducted into office by John Altman, chairman of the Central Labor Council's organizing committee, and Special Organizer H. J. Baird. The union has 32 members, and is organizing a campaign to better conditions in the fertilizer factories of the Eastbay section.

Samuel Evans, a representative of the War Labor Board, is en route to Oakland from Washington, to hold hearings on the complaint of the cotton mill workers' branch of the factory, Mill and Warehouse Employees' Union, against the prevailing scale of wages at the California Cotton Mills. It is understood that Evans is empowered to render a final decision on all matters in dispute.

C. W. Savage, formerly a delegate in the local Building Trades' Council as the representative of Sheet Metal Workers' Union No. 216, is now located at Vallejo as foreman of a large sheet metal shop. Savage was recently elected president of the Solano Building Trades Council.

A concrete freight car has been invented by A. C. Grenwank, a draftsman employed in the office of the State Harbor Commission. It is claimed the car will conduce to the conservation of steel and solve troop and supply transportation problems.

Ship Rivet Record Is Lowered Here

Establishing a new world's ship riveting record which so far excels all former records that it will probably stand for a long time, a crew at the Union plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation yesterday, with a bull riveting machine, drove 8834 half-inch rivets in destroyer plate steel in eight hours. This beats the previous world's record by 1134 rivets.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon 7000 rivets had been driven, the world's record had been broken, and the crew still had one hour and 45 minutes to work. The crew consisted of Charles Dahl, riveter; Clarence Weller, holder-on; Eddie Glidden, heater and Patrick J. Henon, passer. The helpers were G. Cagnacci and Thomas Ward.

The world's record, established by Charles Knight, a colored riveter, in the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation's yard at Sparrow Point, Md., was broken at the Moore Shipbuilding plant in Oakland, May 21, when Tom Horn and three assistants drove 5620 rivets in nine hours. Knight's record was 4875 rivets. Yesterday's record is almost double that established by Knight.

Seven Damage Suits Aggregating $100,000

Seven damage suits, claiming personal damages in an amount in excess of $100,000, have been filed in the Superior Court during the past two days by Attorneys Ostrander and Carey against the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways.

The plaintiffs are: Antionette Sterns, a member of the present jury panel, who claims $20,275 for alleged injuries received when a car she was entering started forward before she was safely aboard; George Gray, Oakland real estate operator, claims $10,450, alleging permanent injuries received when a Key Route train smashed an automobile in which he was crossing the track at Twenty-eighth and Poplar streets; Donald MacKenzie sues for $450 for the destruction of the machine in which he and Gray were riding; Wallace Corbett, by his guardian, Lillian Corbett, claims $30,000; Ruth Hartman claims $20,000 for a broken leg; Louise Spacht sues for $20,000, and Leona Pett claims $10,000.

DON'T BOTHER UNCLE SAMUEL WITH LETTERS

Don't bother Uncle Sam with letters, unless it's absolutely necessary!

This is the plea of the Committee of Public Information, which the Chamber of Commerce has been asked to publish to citizens of Oakland.

The letter from the committee says that departments at Washington are being deluged with all kinds of letters, inquiries, suggestions and other messages which usually hamper work to no purpose. The Chamber has the daily bulletin of the committee on file at its offices, and often, it says, answers to questions can be found there and busy government officials spared.

Women Will Fight Health Insurance Law

The Woman's Campaign committee of the California Research society has been formed to oppose the compulsory health insurance law, No. 20 on the ballot, to be voted on November 5.

The following Oakland women are in the committee: Mrs. Minnie W. Aydelotte, Mrs. Minora Kibbe and Mrs. Robert Watt.

Suit Is Begun to Foreclose On Lots

Suit to foreclose a mortgage on a number of lots in the Glascock tract, belonging to the estate of the late Frank C. Havens, was filed in the superior court yesterday by Mary MacD. Crawford against the administrators of the estate. The mortgage was given to secure a loan of $150,000 made to Havens.

SOCIETY

Do you know that a dog is the only friend you can buy?

Do you want to buy a friend?—a pal for your boy or your little daughter—if you do, go to the Red Cross Shop next Saturday morning on Thirteenth street, between Washington and Clay streets, and see your little friend waiting in the window for you to come and claim him. He is a thoroughbred Airedale puppy, donated by one of our best friends. The Airedale is the dog for companionship and service. He is called the "dog that thinks," and remember that, when you see him on Saturday, and see in his eyes that he is hoping someone will give him a happy home.

Speaking of home—and little children and dogs—brings us naturally to the open fireplace in winter. There will no doubt be a scarcity of firewood this winter and this is your opportunity to help the Red Cross Shop and help yourself—to wood—eucalyptus wood, cut in stove-length. The first friend who offers the prevailing market price may have it to himself—a bit of sacrifice for the Red Cross.

✿ ✿ ✿

For the benefit of the Red Cross a bazaar is to be held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Hubbard, 244 Montecito avenue, Vernon Heights, Saturday afternoon, from two until six o'clock. The younger girls, most of them pupils of Miss Horton's school, are taking part in the plans for the bazaar and spending all of their spare moments in sewing and knitting. Among these are Miss Jeanette Roberts, Miss Corola Hubbard, Miss Katharine Hubbard, Miss Marjorie Hubbard, Miss Cherry Stephenson, Miss Barbara Olney, Miss Dorothy de Veuve, Miss Frances Sherman, Miss Catherine Dunn, Miss Florence Carter, Miss Bernice Bernard, Miss Phyllis O'Brien, Miss Doris O'Brien, Miss Ruth Martin, and Miss Constance Gibson.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Quinn, who have made their home in Santa Barbara, have returned to Oakland to make their home while Mr. Quinn is in the employ of the government doing construction work at Mare Island. Mrs. Quinn was Miss Lorena MacIntyre before her marriage.

✿ ✿ ✿

Rev. J. N. Borroughs, who is the father of J. N. Borroughs, Jr., Mrs. Carrie Hall and Mrs. Archie Currie of this city, has returned from a year's sojourn in the southern states. Rev. Borroughs visited in South Carolina, Alabama and Georgia. He will reside with his daughter, Mrs. Hall, while in Oakland.

Mrs. Kenneth Gillis and Mrs. W. C. Rogers, daughters of Mrs. Carrie Hall, both of Fresno, have been visiting at the home of their mother in Oakland. Mrs. Gillis is receiving congratulations from her friends since the arrival of a little daughter, born at Fabiola Hospital a week ago Wednesday. The baby will be named Geraldine.

✿ ✿ ✿

Many informal parties will be made up for the dance tomorrow evening at St. Francis Hotel by the officers of the 12th Infantry at Camp Fremont. One of the groups from Oakland will include Miss Elizabeth Clay, Miss Cladre Knight, Miss Laura Miller, Captain Edward Hilm, Captain L. R. Reddish, and Lieutenant H. L. Elliott.

✿ ✿ ✿

Miss Grace E. Maleton of this city was hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon at the Hotel Claremont on Saturday afternoon. Bridge was played in the palm room, after which luncheon was served on the sun porch. The tables were decorated with pink and white cosmos. Among those present were the Misses Viola Balzarini, Ruth Byrnes, Alma R. Davis, Ethel Balzarini, June McLea, Mabel McNally, and the Mesdames Beatrice Manuel, Philip A. Day, Walker E. Day, Russell R. Seaman and F. Arthur Larson.

✿ ✿ ✿

Robert Krusi, son of Mrs. Herman Krusi of Alameda, has gone to complete his studies at Stephen Institute of Engineering at Hoboken, New Jersey. Krusi is a mechanical engineer and has been stationed at San Pedro for some time. Mrs. Krusi and her two children will leave soon for New York, later to join Mr. Krusi at the eastern station. Lieutenant Leroy Krusi is now in active service in France.

✿ ✿ ✿

The cast of the "Farmerette" dance in "The Road to Victory" rehearsed last evening at the Hotel Oakland and later enjoyed an informal supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Weinmann, in Paru street, Alameda.

✿ ✿ ✿

Captain F. Leonard Goord of the British recruiting office in San Francisco, will address the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at their meeting. The committee usually prepares a program upon which is featured some prominent speaker on the war. Captain Goord expects to return to England within a short period.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mrs. George Nickel (Ernestine McNear) and Mrs. George Bowles (Helen Nickel) left for one of the training camps in the south last Thursday. They were accompanied by their children and are planning to make their homes somewhere in the vicinity of the camp.

✿ ✿ ✿

Colonel and Mrs. William K. Jones have formally announced the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Jones, and Lieutenant David M. Fisher of the 23rd Machine Gun Battalion. To friends of the couple the engagement was not a surprise, since they had known of the existing betrothal for some time. Miss Jones attended the same university as her fiance in the north, that of Washington. The young officer is a graduate of the class of 1914 and a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

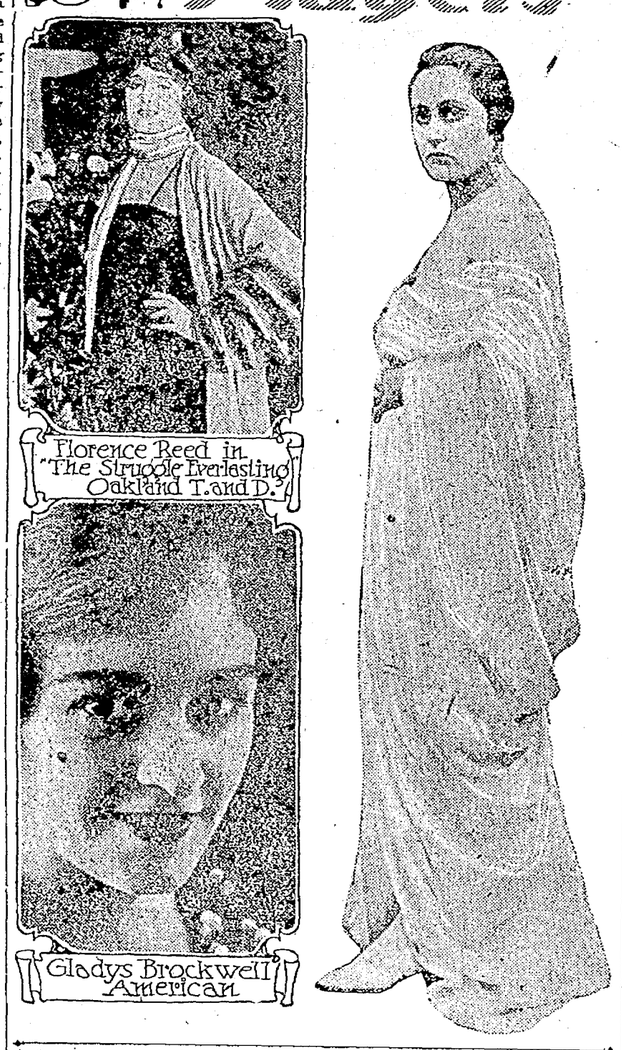

Not having completed her studies here, Miss Jones entered Stanford University after her family moved here, where she was prominently associated with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

No wedding plans of the couple have been announced as yet.

✿ ✿ ✿

Saturday night was the occasion of the fourth of the series of supper dances now being held at the Claremont Hotel. The dances have become very popular among the younger social set of Oakland and Berkeley, and among those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cross of Claremont avenue, Miss Eugenie Thayer, Mr. I. D. Goodheart, Miss Geraldine Nelson and Miss Mazie Coleman of San Francisco, and Jack Speed of Camp Fremont.

Plays & Players

Stars at local playhouses. The full length portrait is that of the vampire in "Old Wives for New" at the Kinema.

"OLD WIVES FOR NEW" AT KINEMA

At the Kinema today Cecil DeMille's production of David Graham Phillips' pen satire on the marriage relationship, "Old Wives for New," is playing to capacity houses. Gaining popularity with each showing, this brilliant and clever play promises to set all Oakland thinking before the week's showing is finished.

Phillips doesn't exactly say that an old wife should be traded in for a new one just like a second-hand car, but he does warn women that catching a husband isn't enough—that you have to hold him after you have tied him. What chance has a woman who allows herself to relax from the standard demanded by a progressive husband and against the competition offered by the other types of women—the woman of the half-world who knows just what to wear, how much perfume to use, just how intimate to become and the alert beauty, calm business woman refreshing and able to carry a conversation? The treatment of these points makes one of the most interesting dramas.

"FAR FLUNG FRONT" AMONG T. & D. THRILLS.

Again unrivaled in excellence, three screen attractions came to the Oakland T. & D. theater yesterday to provide entertainment for the balance of the week. The program is most pretentious, and offers, in addition to the regular big double screen bill, the initial presentation of the official British war pictures, "The Far Flung Front." The screen program further embraces "The Struggle Everlasting," with Florence Reed in the title role and Louise Huff in "The Other Dear Charmer."

Florence Reed will be seen to advantage in "The Struggle Everlasting." "The Other Dear Charmer" is a light comedy of the brand in which Louise Huff excels.

LITTLE WOMEN IS MAGNET AT FULTON

The beauty and sweetness of "Little Women" and the almost faultless production of the play at the Fulton Playhouse (formerly the Bishop), proved a potent attraction to draw the multitudes to the pretty theater on Franklin street, and each night the joys and sorrows of Louise Alcott's famous play, "Little Women," charms and delights capacity crowds.

Jane Urban perhaps never has done a finer bit of character work than in her playing of Jo March. The other characters of Louise Alcott's book are all charmingly portrayed, including Prof. Bhaer, who is delineated to that sterling actor, Paul Harvey. It is a delight to watch the artists cross the stage, that includes such famous characters as Meg and Beth and Amy, Marmee March, Laurie, Mr. March, Aunt March, Hannah, Mr. Laurence and John Brook.

"BIG JIM" HEADS MACDONOUGH BILL

"Big Jim" does not refer to "Pompadour Jim," otherwise known as James J. Corbett, former champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, it applies to the big American trained bear that opened an engagement today at the Macdonough theater at the head of a galaxy of hippodrome vaudeville acts that continue for the balance of the week. "Big Jim" does everything from selling Liberty Loan Bonds, a stunt scheduled for him in the Oakland campaign twice this week, to putting on a wrestling bout, including roller skating, a military drill and a "Hula-Hula" dance. He is a versatile performer.

"THIRTEENTH CHAIR" NEXT AT YE LIBERTY

Preparations are under way at Ye Liberty playhouse for the production of "The Thirteenth Chair," the newest New York success to come to the coast, —which will be presented next Sunday afternoon for the first time in dramatic stock with Jane O'Roark in the leading role, surrounded by a good cast, including the favorites.

"The Thirteenth Chair" comes with the recommendation of dramatic critics and reviewers in the east, and is said to be better than "Cleaning Chesters" or "Seven Keys to Baldpate," its mystery-comedy predecessors. The show is still playing on Broadway and was secured through the personal efforts of Crane Wilbur.

DOUBLE FILM BILL GIVEN AT AMERICAN

Commencing with matinee yesterday and continuing until Saturday night the American offers a double bill that promises an exceptional treat for lovers of better photoplays.

Bert Lytell, one of the most gifted and popular of the present day stars, will appear in his latest success, "Boston Blackie's Little Pal," a screen adaptation of Jack Boyle's famous story.

Another popular photoplay-star featured on the program is Gladys Brockwell in a powerful drama, "Kultur," a production which despite its title is not a "war play," though it has to do with the events that led up to the world conflict and lays bare the private scandals of Teuton royalty.

PANTAGES PRESENTS "MILE A MINUTE"

Not so long ago at the New York Winter Garden, one of the big drawing cards of an exceptionally good show was a scenic thriller in which a locomotive and an automobile engaged in a headlong race down a mountain side. George F. Harris, a young actor producer, secured the vaudeville rights of this truly wonderful stage effect, and has written an intensely interesting comedy-dramatic playlet around it. He calls his offering "A Mile a Minute." Built in three scenes, "A Mile a Minute" tells an absorbing story of the great west and is delighting patrons at the Pantages this week.

ORPHEUM PROGRAM PLEASES AND CHARMS

Memories as tender as those of childhood; hilarity that blended with admiration of sheer cleverness; the charm of beautiful women with beautiful voices; of color lights that play and glitter on a living rainbow; amazement at daring acrobats and sheer laughter at some of the cleverest comedy in years—these are the mixed impressions that one leaves with after attending this week's bill at the Orpheum. For there is every element there that pleases and charms. Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, "the grand old lady" of the American stage, brings back recollections of anywhere from fifty years ago to the present, and pioneers a-plenty, who saw her in the dim past, were at the Orpheum last night to see that past revive.

EXCITING EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED AT NEPTUNE

Neptune Beach will be the mecca of swimming fans for the balance of the season as P. A. A. championship events are scheduled for every Saturday and Sunday from now until the end of the month.

Next Sunday Frances Cowells, the San Francisco mermaid, will go after the 220-yard mark in a scheduled P. A. A. championship meet. Half a dozen other girls will start in this race.

Fish Prices

The following are the maximum retail prices for these varieties of fish on this date in San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley. Dealers are free to sell at lower prices, but should not charge more. Purchasers who are overcharging are invited to make complaint in writing to the State Market Director:

Note—Prices will not be quoted on steamer fish due to the very small catch:

	Cents per lb.

Two Petition for Change of Names

Dimitries Papakyriajes is too long a name for Americans to spell or pronounce, and so the owner of it petitioned today to have it changed to James Paps. He was born in Greece twenty-two years ago, coming to this country when he was 11 years old.

Likewise Max Benschuetz, born in Hamburg, Germany, petitions for the American name, Frank Howard.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORY

(By HOWARD R. GARIS)

"Would you like to come for a walk with me, Nurse Jane?" asked Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman of his muskrat lady housekeeper one morning.

"Indeed I would," she answered, as she finished sweeping off the front steps of the hollow stump bungalow in the woods.

"All right, then, come along!" invited the bunny.

"You won't have any funny, scary adventures while I'm with you, will you?" asked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, as she tied her tail in a bow knot to keep it out of the dust.

"I'll try not to," answered the rabbit gentleman. "Still I cannot say what will happen. Be a sport, as the boys say, Nurse Jane, and come along."

"That's what I will," said the muskrat lady, and soon she and Uncle Wiggily were hopping and skipping along through the forest of Woodland near the orange Ice Mountains as frisky as a couple of mad turtles.

"Why, hello, Uncle Wiggily!" called the black dog as soon as he caught sight of the bunny rabbit gentleman. I was just looking for you!"

"Were you? That's good! I'm glad to see you!" exclaimed the bunny rabbit gentleman. But Nurse Jane seemed sort of shocked and whispered:

"Why, Wiggy! The very idea! Surely you aren't going to have anything to do with this dog! He's a most horrid chap, to be sure. Maybe he'll bite you and certainly he'll get you all black!"

"As to that, it little matters," said Mr. Longears. "This dog is a friend of mine."

"A friend of yours!" cried Nurse Jane. "Why, how can that be? You must be mistaken! This is the Skeezicks, or the bad skillery scalery alligator, made up to look like a black dog. If I were you I'd have nothing to do with him!"

"If I didn't have something to do with him we'd freeze this winter," said the bunny rabbit. "This is the coal dog, and, unless I am much mistaken, which I hope I am not, he has come to put in my winter coal. How about it?" he asked the dog.

"Right you are!" barked the dog in a hoarse but jolly voice. "Excuse me being black, lady," he went on to Nurse Jane, "but it's only the coal dust. I'll run right along and shovel the coal down the chute into your hollow stump bungalow," went on the dog to Uncle Wiggily.

"Thank you," spoke the bunny. "I'll be back in a little while to see that all is well."

So Nurse Jane and Uncle Wiggily went on for a little longer walk, and the coal dog put the black diamonds in the bunny's hollow stump bungalow cellar. And while the long chute, or slide, down which the coal slid through the window was in place, along came sneaking the bad old Skeezicks.

The Skeezicks saw the open cellar window of Uncle Wiggily's house, and knowing nothing about coal, the Skeezicks said:

"Ah, ha! Here is my chance to sneak in Uncle Wiggily's bungalow and grab him while he's asleep tonight. I'll do it!"

Just at this moment the coal dog was taking a little rest and he had his back turned toward the window. But he swung around as the Skeezicks was slipping in, and saw him.

"Oh, ho!" said the coal dog to himself. "This will never do! That Skeezicks is going to try to bite souse off Uncle Wiggily's ears. I can't allow that! Here goes for a trick on the bad chap!"

And, just as the Skeezicks was sliding down the chute through the cellar window into the bungalow, the coal dog tossed after him a big shovel full of coal and dust. The coal went all over the Skeezicks, and the dust got up his nose and made him snicker and sneeze, and he sneezed so hard that he sneezed himself right back out of the cellar window and far, far away over the tree tops.

"I guess you won't hurt Uncle Wiggily this time!" said the brave coal dog. And when the bunny came back and heard what had happened, he said to Nurse Jane:

"You see, you should never be afraid of any one just because they have coal dust on their face."

So, if the bicycle doesn't turn over backward and try to trip you, the roller skates with a lollypop stick, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the football.

'Daughter of Destiny' Charms at Broadway

Petrova will charm with her magnetic personality at the Broadway theater today, where the star began a two-day engagement in "The Daughter of Destiny." "Bill" Hart will be seen in "The Gun Fighter," providing a double screen bill of exceptional merit.

Petrova is at her best in "The Daughter of Destiny." Directed by herself in her own studio, this picture is the third that has come under the star's supervision, and in it she has demanded the same acme of excellence that characterizes all her work before the screen.

Saturday, "The Judgment House" will be shown on a triple screen bill with Hart and Chaplin dividing the honors in drama and comedy. Sunday, Sessue Hayakawa will appear in "His Birthright," and Chaplin, Arbuckle and Mabel Normand will furnish an irresistible comedy combination.

Loyal Autoists Will Not Oppose Posters

Garage men and automobile dealers of this city are under a misapprehension regarding the interpretation of an ordinance governing the placing of Liberty Loan posters on automobiles, according to the local Liberty Loan committee and the police department.

Liberty Loan posters may be placed on any machine, provided the owner's permission is first obtained. The police departemnt makes a point of the belief that any owner will be pleased to carry a Liberty Loan poster in the shape of an automobile sticker, or some other message which will aid the local drive, and say the garage owners and dealers should have no hesitancy in asking such permission.

CHURCHES

BAPTIST MINISTERS

The Baptist ministers of the bay district held a special meeting Monday at the First Baptist church of Oakland to hear two addresses, one by Ben Scoville, a Y. M. C. A. war worker, whose brother was crucified by the Huns; the other by Dr. John Reicheson, representing the Home Missionary Board.

THE COVENANT CLUB

The Covenant club of the Temple Sinai will have a musical, social and literary program tonight, conducted by Miss Ida Parris, Miss Rusebud Lane and Felix Schreiber, the last named delivering the address. Guests from the Presidio and the Technical High school will also participate. Young people in sympathy with the work of the club are cordially invited. A special feature of the evening will be a "cornucopia" dance.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS

Next Friday is the Feast of St. Francis, the founder of the three Franciscan orders. At 8:30 a. m. a solemn high mass will be held at St. Elizabeth's church, Fruitvale. The school children and the members of the Third Order will receive the holy communion in a body. The clerics of the Monastery will render a beautiful new mass which they have been preparing during the past few weeks.

WOMEN of ALAMEDA COUNTY AND THEIR WORK

By GEORGIA G. BORDWELL.

The Twentieth Century Club of Berkeley, Mrs. Frederick G. Athearn, president, in its October Bulletin, indicates quite clearly the war time spirit which possesses it.

No mention is made of any meeting other than those that feature conservation, Liberty Loan, Thrift Stamps, Red Cross, and those that are for the furtherance of the new democracy, an Americanization, public speaking and the study of parliamentary law.

As a practical demonstration of its idea of conservation, the club will this year dispense with the usual year book, thereby saving white paper.

Members are requested to send their contributions in to the War Service Fund, whether or not they find it convenient to attend the Benefit Card Party which will be held Tuesday evening, October 2, and altogether it is a very business-like program for October.

On October 15, the constitutional amendments, to be voted on November 6, will be discussed by able speakers.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO PROBE HOUSING.

In view of the fact that a number of instances have been reported to Harry Larler, secretary of the new housing commission, in which an attempt to demand exorbitant rents from families having a number of children, the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs has decided that it is a duty to investigate conditions in this regard, and to report to the commission any instances in which the welfare of women or children is concerned.

To that end the Federation at its business meeting, Tuesday, appointed a housing committee to co-operate with the city commission: Mrs. C. E. Wilson, chairman; Mrs. D. A. Porter and Mrs. J. S. Cooper will see to it that no cases of extortion go unreported.

A committee, whose duty it will be to compile the new Federation roster and arrange the directory includes Mrs. J. W. Comstock, chairman, Mrs. W. D. Bunker, Mrs. E. E. Sears and Mrs. J. M. Evans.

To look for flaws in the constitution, to suggest amendments that will bring it right up to the minute, the Federation also appointed the following committee: Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, chairman, Mrs. H. C. Tardy and Miss Olive Gordon of the School Women's Club.

PARENT TEACHERS TO CARE FOR BELGIAN BOY.

Answering the plea of the Belgian Commission "Adopt a Belgian Baby," the Melrose Heights Parent Teachers' Association has taken unto itself the care of one of these little homeless ones. Influenced by the fact that ever so many more girls are adopted than boys, the club decided to pay for the care of a Belgian boy, and it is awaiting with interest the arrival of the picture of its new son. It costs five dollars a month to keep one of these future citizens of Belgium from starvation; the money will be raised each month through the extra efforts of the club's war relief committee.

At the next meeting of this club, Frday, at 2:15 p. m., Mrs. Suzanne Gomez, executive secretary of the Travelers' Aid, will speak on War-Time Problems.

An important business meeting of the W. P. Frick Parent Teachers' Association has been called for 2:30 p. m., tomorrow, by the president, Mrs. J. M. Evans.

CLUB SECTION MEETINGS SCHEDULED.

Club Section meetings scheduled for tomorrow are:

Town and Gown Club, Berkeley, business meeting of the War Service Section at 3 p. m.

Ebell Club, Living Issues, 10:30 a. m., and Travel Section at 2 p. m.

The Living Issues Section will discuss the week's war news as gleaned from the letters of Frank Simonds and Sidney Coryn, and the Travel Section will devote the afternoon to the study of Chinese History.

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, Miss Frances Wilson, new deputy district attorney, will speak to the Big Sisters at a meeting which will be held at 420 Central Bank building. Miss Wilson's duties bring her in close close touch with many of the girls and women whom the Big Sisters hope to help to a better way of life, and what she has to say will be listened to with the greatest interest.

WOMEN HOSTESSES AT LAND SHOW BOOTHS.

The end of the week finds many women acting as hostesses in the various booths at the Land Show. The Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, maintains a booth wherein a warm welcome awaits all mothers, who, becoming weary, want to rest. The hostesses today were members of Fruitvale Mothers' Club, tomorrow they will be from Lazear and Laurel, Saturday from McChesney and on Sunday, as usual, the Federation will act as hostesses.

Today is Club Day at the booth maintained by the Women's Committee of the Council of Defense.

The annual benefit concert of the East Oakland Settlement will be given tomorrow night at Ebell Club House. Those who will contribute to the program are Miss Marie Millette, soprano; Miss Carrie Jones, pianist; Mrs. Medlett, violin; Mrs. Agatha Cummings Southern, reader; Robert Battison, tenor.

THE THIRTEENTH COMMANDMENT

by Rupert Hughes.

CHAPTER LXXV.

Daphne's first visitor after Bayard was Mrs. Chivvis. She was not at all what Daphne feared. Her manner had the discretion that sick people require, but her heart was evidently shaken from its calm. And she brought flowers.

"Oh, my dear!" she murmured. "I read in the papers about your misfortune. Such a night as I had spent! I was so afraid for you! I couldn't imagine what had become of you. There was no one at your brother's apartment all night. The night man said your brother had left in great haste, and seemed to be worried. And to think that you were lying here in such pain! And I might have helped you."

Daphne smiled, and they clasped hands like the two splendid little business women they were.

"How's the shop?" Daphne asked.

"I haven't been there."

"It isn't open, then?"

"No, indeed. With you here?"

"That makes no difference," Daphne stormed, already converted to the shop religion. "Customers must not find the door shut. Run open it at once. Supposed Mrs. Romily dropped in. We'd lose her—unless this notoriety drives her away." A little blush of shame flickered in Daphne's pale cheeks a moment and went out. She sighed: "I suppose Mr. Duane has stopped that check, too—if he ever sent it. Oh, dear! I'll never try to save anybody's else reputation."

"What do you mean?" Mrs. Chivvis snapped.

"Nothing," Daphne answered in haste. "I'm woozy with the medicines." She had suddenly realized that her sacrifice for Leila's sake was of the kind that publication would reverse into slander.

Mrs. Chivvis had an inkling of what she meant, but she also had decency enough to try to change the subject. She made several fish-like gasps, but no words came.

Then a nurse knocked; brought in a card growing in a large little azalea-tree. Daphne scanned it. "Mr. Thomas Varick Duane!" She peered closer at the pencilings and read aloud: "I just learned. I'm heartbroken. Isn't there anything I can do?"

Daphne felt as if outraged society had forgiven her.

"Isn't he a darling?" she murmured.

Mrs. Chivvis begrudged a stingy, "Well, of course—" She had the poor folks' conscientious scruples against wasting praise on the rich. She thought she could escape from committing herself by rising. "You'll want to see him, I presume."

This was a tremendous concession, since it would be almost pagan for her to retire and permit Daphne to receive Duane in her room, and she in bed. Mrs. Chivvis had never heard of the old French court custom. She would not have approved of it.

But Daphne had had enough of evil appearance. She expressed the horror that Mrs. Chivvis felt: "See him here? Never!" She glared at poor Mrs. Chivvis with a reproof that was excruciating to accept, and ordered her to go down and meet Mr. Duane and incidentally learn about the check. "Business is business," she said.

Mrs. Chivvis descended in all the confusion of a Puritan wife meeting a Cavalier beau. She came back later to say that Mr. Duane was really very nice, and spoke beautifully and had sent the check and would send another if Daphne wished it, and would make old Mrs. Romilly go on with the order, and would she like some special fruits or soups or something? He was really very nice. She was blushing from the very effort to keep from blushing.

Daphne eyed her with ironic horror and said, "You've been flirting with him! and me so helpless here!"

"Daph!—nee!! Kip!!!" Mrs. Chivis screamed. The only counter thrust she could think of was, "And what does Mr. Wimburn say?"

This sobered Daphne. She had been thinking of Clay, and during Mrs. Chivvis' absence she had been regretting that once more Clay should have permitted Tom Duane to beat him to the proper thing.

There was an incongruity in Duane's flowers that hurt her. Why had Clay sent no word? Everybody else in town had seen the papers. Clay read the papers. Surely he was not capable of such monstrous pique. When your worst enemy gets badly hurt you've just got to forgive—if you're human.

Duane had not been held back by any such jealousy of Wetherell. Why should Clay? To conceal her misery from Mrs. Chivvis she began to complain again of the risk of leaving the shop shut, and she bustled her partner off. Then she became mere woman and brooded over her lover's incredible neglect. She continued to brood all that day, and the next, and the next.

Gradually her gloom changed to a lively alarm. Perhaps some ill had befallen him. The factories where war munitions were being turned out were subject to all sorts of explosions, incendiarisms, strikes, assaults, murders. There was much talk of hostile spies and hyphenated-American conspiracy, and she began to wonder if Clay might not have been assassinated as an agent for the Allies.

Almost worse than this fear was the dread that he might have been won over by some other woman. Even in that case, Daphne felt that he ought to have sent a word of regret—unless the woman were some green-eyed demon "who had him scared."

Daphne had an abundance of time to speculate, for if Clay were alive he gave no sign of his existence.

When she appealed to Bayard he said he had tried to find Clay himself. He confessed that he had wanted to borrow money of him.

The hospital had asked for two weeks' room rent in advance, and he had found himself a little short. Daphne fretted over this eternal stringency. Bayard's efforts to persuade her that she must not worry about money only made her worry the more.

She grew frantic to be back at her shop. To be earning something, that was the important thing. She hated to lie abed and let Mrs. Chivvis carry the business alone. It was unfair to Mrs. Chivvis and unfair to the business, too, for Mrs. Chivvis was no saleswoman, and Daphne was a mighty good one, if she did say it herself.

She had come to think of "the business" with a fervor akin to religion or patriotism.

She was evolving a commercial character with a vengeance. The soul that had looked down on trade was now thrilling to its distresses and ecstasies, its romance and its prides and its pathos.

Yet it was rather her wares that she had changed than her character. Previously her stock in trade had been like other women's—her charm and her attention and her compliance; now she was selling clothes and trinkets.

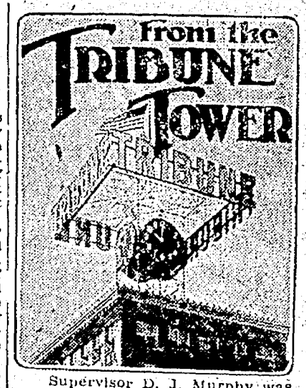

We are all salespeople in one branch or another; aristocrats with show-windows full of pedigrees and favors and antique furniture of every sort; artists marketing their dreams and handiwork; military men their labor and their safety; clergymen their voice and dogmas. Even wives and sweethearts were always price-tagging more or less of themselves for more or less of some man's cash or credit.

Daphne felt that she was honester now than she had ever been. She was actually less in trade than ever, because she was now vending less precious things. By means of commercialism she was protecting her soul and body from the auction block. It is better to sell the things you make than to sell the things you are.

Daphne was afraid, however, that Clay was not emancipated enough to appreciate this. She was afraid that she had bought her shop at the price of her love. The hospital was a jail now; she was withheld from pursuing both her new business of selling bride-wear and the original business of becoming a bride.

Supervisor D. J. Murphy was conducting a sale of stock and farm equipment on a ranch near his home town of Livermore this week, when a good calf was offered by the auctioneer. Several bids were made and the animal was finally knocked down for $11 and it was found that the supervisor was the purchaser.

"Put the calf up again," said the supervisor, "this time it goes for the Red Cross."

The animal was sold for $18 this time, and the $18 went into the Red Cross fund. The new purchaser did the same thing and the calf brought $25.

D. A. Smith, town marshal of Livermore, who was the auctioneer, kept the calf up before the buyers, and each time it was turned back and the money put in the Red Cross fund. The sum of $128 had been realized when Auctioneer Smith slipped a cog. He let the calf go to a man from Sunol for $10, the smallest amount that had been paid by anyone, and the man kept the animal.

"That's all right," said Murphy. "If the Red Cross could get $128 out of every calf it would be a good investment."

VOLLMER HEEDS S. O. S. AND TWANGS STRINGS

Because Chief of Police August Vollmer is a good fellow and he heeded an S. O. S. call in the name of charity, he went to bed one night and woke up the next morning to find himself famous. And as a musician!

It so happened that not many months ago a big Red Cross benefit was being staged in the college city. At the last minute a famous guitar player who was to have strolled among the guests playing tuneful melodies, was taken ill. Now in his youth Chief Vollmer had strummed idly on the strings of a guitar. Somoone heard echoes of the distant strummings and an S. O. S. call was sent forth to the police station for help.

That night, in flowing robes and drooping sombrero, the august custodian of the law in the college city, with other members of the Berkeley musical colony, played dreamy melodies of sunny Italy for the assembled elite.

Since then Chief Vollmer declares his peace of mind is no more. From all sides come calls from professional, semi-professional and amateur sources. Every entertainment in the college city seeks the popular police chief as its star performer.

Refusals are taken as merely indications of modesty and the requests go on and on. But the deep, down low of it all, the chief says, is that it is all a mistake and that he doesn't know one note from another!

No one believes him, however. One night's "stepping out" has proved his undoing.

A Message to Mothers

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Skin Blemishes

How to get rid of them

Skin specialists are tracing fewer and fewer troubles to the blood—more to bacteria and parasites that are carried into the pores with dust, soot and grime.

Clear your skin of any blemishes caused by this most powerful and persistent enemy by this effective local treatment. Just before retiring, wash in your usual way with warm water and Woodbury's Facial Soap and then dry your face. Now dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy cream-like lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this soap cream and leave it on for ten minutes. Then rinse very carefully with clear, hot water; then with cold.

Use Woodbury's regularly in your daily toilet. This will make your skin so firm and active that it will resist the frequent cause of blemishes and keep your complexion free from them.

Start to make your skin lovelier—tonight

Get your first cake of Woodbury's today. Begin now to overcome whatever condition is keeping your skin from being as lovely as it should be.

Blackheads, conspicuous nose pores, oily skin and shiny nose, blemishes, a sluggish, sallow skin—treatments for these and others of the commoner skin troubles are given in the booklet "A Skin You Love to Touch" which comes wrapped around the soap.

You will find a 25c cake sufficient for a month or six weeks of any Woodbury treatment and for general cleansing use during this time.

TRAIN RUNS INTO WORKERS; 26 ARE KILLED

BEDFORD, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Twenty-six men are known to have been killed and several injured early today when a Pennsylvania flyer from Columbus for Cleveland, ran through a crowd of workmen at the Interstate engineering plant here as they were boarding a workmen's special train to go to their homes after working. Twenty-three of the men were killed outright and three expired at hospitals shortly after they were injured without regaining consciousness. Two or three other injured may recover. All of the dead are from Cleveland. The train did not leave the track.

The statements made by officials of the company and from witnesses of the accident, twenty-six men were killed and but two or three injured. The men, most of them residents of Cleveland, were leaving work on the night shift and were boarding a special workmen's train as the day force was leaving it, when a Pennsylvania train from Columbus dashed through the crowd, killing or injuring practically all the men in the gathering. A heavy fog screened the approach of the train and the men were unaware of its approach until it struck them.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Three persons are believed to be dead and eighteen are known to be injured in a rear-end collision between two local trains at the Jackson avenue station on the West Farms division of the subway here today. A five-car local train crashed into the rear of another five-car train, which was waiting to be switched on to another track.

The motorman of the second train was killed and a guard on the first train is believed to have been killed. The other man known to be dead was identified as Meyer Barall, 48.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 3.—Engineer McCullough and Fireman Mahan of Fort Scott, Kan., were killed and twelve passengers were slightly injured when a Frisco passenger train plunged through a burning bridge. Flames destroyed the entire train, consisting of two passenger coaches, mail car and engine.

NOTHING BUT WRECK FROM NEGLECT

Down the street he trods, a beaten man at thirty-five, the very time he should be in the prime of health and success. Much pity is his only receipt and he gets that from all sides.

He never used a tooth brush. He disillusioned himself with the idea that if he stuck to a certain brand of fine cut it would preserve his teeth.

There are thousands who are kidding only themselves on this tomfool stunt of chewing the weed to help preserve the teeth.

One of the nicest suicides known is this taking a chance on your teeth. The old man with the scythe reaps more dead ones from the field of negligence than from any other.

Don't delay this important factor of having your teeth made sound. Be sure you visit a competent dentist. Seventy-five per cent of the dentists practicing in California are not qualified in experience or skill to work in one of my offices. My associates have the class.

My X-Ray machine, under the direction of an experienced radiographer, eliminates every particle of guesswork in my office. The Anderson service is unique. It cannot be obtained in the average dental office. My prices are one-half what the dentists who belong to the Dental Trust charge. Pay as your work progresses—a little at a time.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded, or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. —Advertisement.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Oakland Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains often come from weak kidneys.

'Twould save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys,

Read what an Oakland citizen says:

Mrs. Philip Reader, 1227 Forty-first avenue, says: "I had quite a spell of kidney trouble. Most people have awfully bad backaches when their kidneys aren't acting right. My back, however, didn't cause me much trouble, but it was the way my kidneys acted that caused me the most annoyance. When I bent over, my sight became dim and specks appeared before my eyes. I was feeling badly when a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and I took some. They soon had me feeling better and before long had removed the complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reader had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs. Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

Stop Itching Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of eczema, tetter, pimples, rash, blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use zemo, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. It is not a greasy salve and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin troubles of all kinds.

MRS. WILLIAMS GAINS 25 LBS.

Health So Bad Before Taking Tanlac Don't See Now How She Lived

"A little less than two months ago I began taking Tanlac and since that time I have actually gained twenty-five pounds," was the remarkable statement made by Mrs. J. W. Williams, of 659 Orena street, Seattle, Wash., recently.

"My health has been very poor for many years," she continued, "but my condition has been so bad during the past two or three years that I really don't see how I lived. I suffered most all the time with fearful headaches and awful pains in my back and, in fact, I was racked with pain all over. I lost my appetite, and my nerves became so shattered that I hardly knew what sleep was. When my husband lost his sight, my duties, of course, became doubly hard, and my health being bad already, I kept going down under the strain. I did everything I could to keep out of bed, but finally got to where I was just up and down—would sit up one day and be in bed the next—and I even had to give up my housework because I was so weak. Every day was just another day of suffering and misery for me.

"I went down from one hundred and forty pounds to less than a hundred, and was just a frame with scarcely strength to move around. I finally made up my mind from what I read about Tanlac to try it and I have certainly found it wonderful. I now weigh one hundred and twenty-five pounds and if anyone could feel like a new person I do. My appetite is splendid and I am just building up every day. My nerves are in good condition. I have gotten rid of all my pain and now I sleep like a child every night. I have gained so much in strength already that I can do all my housework without any trouble and I have been benefited so much that I am glad to recommend Tanlac to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

PROTECTION FOR CHILDHOOD.

It is well that the city council of Oakland is to consider the enactment of an ordinance forbidding landlords to deny housing accommodations to children. The arrogance, selfishness and general meanness of owners of property in this respect has become a serious social and economic problem in this and many other cities.

According to official reports, some landlords are anticipating the arrival of the stork by serving notices in advance to prospective mothers that as soon as their offspring arrives they must vacate their living quarters. It is becoming increasingly difficult for families with children to obtain houses and apartments. Inasmuch as the larger families are to be found among the wage-earners, those who are giving their labor to the winning of the war are the biggest sufferers. Shipyard workers who wish to locate in this district with their families have been met with refusal of housing accommodations because of the presence of children in their families.

THE TRIBUNE received some weeks ago, when the increase of population on account of the shipbuilding industry became apparent, letters from landlords protesting against any projects to increase housing facilities on the brutally inhuman ground that scarcity of housing would enable the landlords to fill their houses without having to accept families with children. This is not the spirit that animates all owners of houses to let, but it rules an undesirable number of them. It is these that the authorities must curb, punish and control. They deserve no leniency, because their patriotism and desire to help beat the nation's enemies are subservient to their desire for personal gain and comfort.

Childhood and parenthood may be protected by law. Many cities in the country already have enacted ordinances to prevent landlords evicting tenants because of children. The penalty should be as severe as the authority of the city council permits. Barring children from rented homes is an unmoral act, springing from motives of selfishness. It should be made a crime under the laws of the community.

It is to be hoped that the Oakland city council will be not turned from its present purpose to protect children and parents, and that the passage of the proposed ordinance will be expedited.

NEGLECT OF DUTY.

Mr. C. C. Moore, chairman of the State Council of Defense, has informed the school authorities of the State that Nida's history is rife with the most palpable propaganda of German kaiserism. This book has for some time been in use in many of the schools as a supplementary historical reader. Investigations have been started to ascertain what ought now to be done with it."

Thanks are due Mr. Moore for directing the attention of the school authorities to this matter. But it is a matter of deep regret that some California school officials had to be informed, eighteen months after the declaration of war, of the presence of a volume containing enemy propaganda. They should have instituted a search on their own volition and acted without waiting for the suggestion of the State Council of Defense.

It is a primary function of the schools to act as a vigilant organization for the defense and preservation of correctly-informed, clear-thinking patriotism in American citizenship. Failure in the performance of this duty in the greatest crisis the country has ever faced is faillre indeed. Neither State Superintendent of Instruction Hyatt or any other school official should try to explain away his responsibility. He should devote himself to repairing his neglect.

August 26 an impressive ceremony took place at Havre. It was the first meeting of the committee of neutral and allied nations for the restoration of the library of Louvain. The day was the fourth anniversary of the destruction of the library by the Germans. There were present representatives from universities of Belgium, France, the United States, Switzerland and Spain. The statement being made that Germany had offered to make amends by reconstructing the university and restoring the library, a prompt response was made that Belgium had no gifts to take at the hands of Germany. The spirit of this people is epitomized by this response. After four years of ravage and destruction, enslavement and murder, they are still defiant. That Germany should think it could triumph over such a people was to assume that the spirit of chivalry was extinct.

JAPAN'S NEW CABINET.

The cabinet changes in Japan have been accomplished quietly and do not appear to portend any radical change in Japanese policy of State, especially as regards foreign affairs. Internal political maneuvers were responsible for the ousting of the Terauchi ministry, and the change is a victory for the movement for proportionate parliamentary party representation in the cabinet.

Mr. Kei Hara, the new premier, is one of the leaders of the Seiya Kai, the strongest political party in Japan. A persistent fight has been made by this and other parties for a cabinet representing fairly the strength of the different parties. Field Marshal Count Terauchi when elevated to the premiership from the office of governor-general of Korea represented the so-called militarist party, then one of the smallest party organizations in Japan. The new cabinet represents a triumph for the idea of proportionate representation and not failure of or popular dissatisfaction with the Terauchi regime.

The Terauchi government has been almost uniformly successful in all its important undertakings. Certainly it has preserved Japan's high standing in the family of great nations. The treaty of alliance with Great Britain, which involved faithful support of all the war efforts of the Entente coalition, has been scrupulously observed. One of the most notable events of the retiring government was the understanding between the United States and Japan arranged by Viscount Ishii and Secretary of State Lansing. Whatever criticism of the Ishii-Lansing agreement may be uttered concerning its relation to China, it was a most significant act in connection with the war. And it must be remembered that the war and victory over Germany was at once the chief motive and aim of the government.

Entering into a covenant of complete cooperation in the Pacific area for the period of the war, Japan and the United States served notice to the world that German machination in the Far East had failed; that there would be no rupture of the friendship of the two countries. This was the first bitter defeat the German emperor sustained after America's entry into the conflict.

This agreement has been carried out with splendid spirit and to the inestimable benefit of the Ally cause. Following a year of valuable cooperation on the seas, and in economic matters, Japanese and American troops are now fighting side by side in Siberian Russia.

Under the Kei Hara ministry the program of Japan in international affairs will continue unchanged in its important major aspects. Nothing, we may be sure, will transpire to mar the happy amity that now exists between the Tokyo and Washington governments. Premier Hara is a man of exceptional talents and ability. Educated as a lawyer, he is a leading Japanese editor and an experienced diplomat and statesman. He has visited the United States and is thoroughly familiar with American conditions and sentiment. Viscount Uchida, the new foreign minister, is also well informed as to affairs on this side of the Pacific, having served his country as ambassador at Washington.

While hoping that Count Terauchi's public service is not ended, the new cabinet of which Premier Hara is the head is cordially welcomed in Entente circles. It is a step nearer the rightful source of governmental authority—the parliamentary and electoral bodies.

Californians can at least take that dubious sort of comfort resulting from a knowledge that others are in the same boat—that they are not the only ones distracted by complicated election laws. In Chicago, for instance, the primary ballot contained 150 names. Republicans had to choose ten candidates for county commissioners out of thirty-eight, and Democrats ten out of sixty. There were nine candidates for sheriff, two of whom had identical names. No provision such as the one here that left a party without a candidate appears to have been involved, but other complexities made intelligent voting a difficult proceeding.

THE HIGH COST OF PUBLIC OFFICE.

Partisan politics certainly should be adjourned and abjured in connection with any senatorial or executive inquiry into the expenditures of candidates for federal office in recent campaigns preceding primary elections. Neither party is sinless in this matter of expenditures and both have contributed to the gradual development of legislation against corrupt practices in connection with office seeking. If national and state laws limiting campaign expenditures are inadequate and defective both parties should join earnestly in the task of amending them.

Two questions have been raised once more as a result of certain expenditures in recent political campaigns. One is whether the acts now on the statute books have been violated by heavy outlays of money. The other question is whether existing corrupt practices legislation is inadequate. It is a shock to find that one candidate for the federal Senate expended over $176,000 in a primary campaign. Friends of democracy cannot contemplate these amazing figures with equanimity.

It may be pointed out, however, that the apathetic voter is largely to blame for lavish and alarming expenditures in political contests. If the voters habitually exercised their suffrage rights without spectacular and sensational methods of "getting out the vote," without brass bands, screaming billboards and other frantic appeals, campaign costs could and would be more easily kept within legitimate bounds.

Too much should not be expected from mere multiplication of restrictive legislation, proper as such legislation may be. The public must help in every possible way to cure the abuse of money in politics. —Chicago News.

NOTES and COMMENT

The returns so far from the Fourth Liberty Loan drive serve to indicate the tremendous resources of the Nation and at the same time the great patriotism of its people.

* * *

Airships may be the coming vehicle, but rushing into their manufacture with the expectation of acquiring great riches has not proven a certain success. The bankruptcy of an aircraft corporation of San Francisco attests this fact.

* * *

Suffrage was lost in the United States Senate by two votes, both Democratic. The President evidently realized the undesirability of the defeat of this measure by his own party when he made his personal appeal, which seems to have been futile.

* * *

We are continually being warned not to feel too good over the Hun defeats and general discomfiture. The theory is, of course, that he may come back. Even then, to rejoice over his reverse now isn't altogether foolish, for we are sure of that much satisfaction. The man who was tossed over the fence by the bull congratulated himself that he had his laugh first.

* * *

Just at this time the municipal wrangling is unusually discordant. It would be better to put it off to a time when patriotic affairs were not so obtrusive, or, better still, to defer it altogether.

* * *

It would seem that notice might be served on the Huns that wanton destruction, such as the deliberate burning of towns in their flight, would be charged up to their account and added in as one of the things they will have to make good in that final accounting which they cannot really expect to escape.

* * *

We do not read much about the Austrians of late. They are not largely accredited in the proceedings, but sufficiently, without any doubt, to lead to the conclusion that they are not extracting great enjoyment out of that which is going on.

The thing about Foch's drives that must be disconcerting to the enemy is that there is no accompaniment of the pomp and circumstance of war to serve as warning. The first thing the Hun knows there is regular action, generally where he has not been looking for it.

The Board of Supervisors, in its sweeping order aimed at the practice of county employees hocking their pay a month ahead, has taken a commendable aim, but will have to keep steady to effectually hit the bullseye. The improvidence that leads to such practice is deep-seated.

Japanese men in Hawaii are forbidden to wear kimonas on the streets. Fair enough. Once upon a time there was an ordinance against women wearing "Mother Hubards" on the street. No one ever knew why a woman should need a law for such a purpose. It was generally supposed that a look in her mirror would act as a restraining influence. —Stockton Record.

The announcement is made of a vaccine developed by the public health department which gives promise of staying the plague of pneumonia which is the most fatal complication of the present world-wide epidemic of Spanish influenza. This vaccine may or may not justify all the hopes which early experience indicates, but whether it does or not, there are at least several others which have already shown brilliant results in overwhelming diseases of the war. It is at least possible, and it appears probable, that this one will do as well as some of its predecessors.—Fresno Republican.

Report from the United States Department of Agriculture that the cultivation of Egyptian cotton in the Pacific Coast states increased from 3800 acres in 1913 to 86,500 this year, indicates the coming of a time when "Egyptian" will be a misnomer.—Sacramento Union.

WEATHER REPORT

Forecast.

Oakland and vicinity: Tonight and Friday, unsettled and occasionally threatening; light westerly winds.

Northern California: Tonight and Friday unsettled and occasionally threatening south; unsettled, probably showers north portion; light westerly winds.

Southern California: Tonight and Friday unsettled and occasionally threatening; light winds, mostly westerly.

Sacramento valley: Tonight and Friday, unsettled, occasionally threatening; light southwesterly winds.

Santa Clara and San Joaquin valleys: Tonight and Friday unsettled, occasionally threatening; light northwesterly winds.

Nevada and Idaho: Tonight and Friday unsettled, probably showers.

Washington and Oregon: Tonight and Saturday fair; light southerly winds.

Conditions.

The pressure has increased over most of the western states and Alaska, and generally unsettled, cloudy weather has resulted in local showers in extreme southern and northern California, Nevada, the northwest and British Columbia; showers have occurred also in the Missouri valley and at Boston and Tampa. A large high pressure area overlies the country east of the Rocky mountains.

Temperatures are about normal in most of the western, southern and extreme eastern states. It is cooler in southeastern Washington, central California, eastern South Dakota and the upper Mississippi valley, and warmer in the southern plains states, southwestern Canada and adjoining portions of the United States and on the north Atlantic coast.

The indications are for generally unsettled weather tonight and Friday, with showers in the northern portion of the district and Nevada.

Royal Slav Art Treasures Now Known to Be in Berlin

All conjectures as to the fate of the well-nigh priceless art treasures that adorned the walls and the glass show cases of the imperial hermitage palace at Petrograd have been set at rest by the revelation that they have found their way to Berlin; the fact having been brought to light through a bitter controversy which has arisen between the kaiser and the sovereign Grand Duke of Hesse with regard to their possession.

When Napoleon created the kingdom of Westphalia and gave the throne and scepter thereof to his youngest brother, Jerome Bonaparte, as a reward for his obedience in abandoning his American wife, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, of Baltimore, to contract a royal marriage with Caroline, daughter of the king of Wurttemberg, he stipulated that Jerome should surrender all the finest paintings at Wilhelmshohe to him and should despatch them to Paris. He did so.

Some time after their arrival there Napoleon made a present of them to his consort, Empress Josephine, who at her death was found to have bequeathed them in her will to her two children, Eugene de Beauharnais, for a time viceroy of Italy, and to Hortense, the queen of King Louis Bonaparte of Holland and mother of Napoleon III.

Queen Hortense as well as her brother, Eugene, who married a daughter of the king of Bavaria, were glad to sell these paintings after the downfall of the empire to Czar Alexander I, fearing that they might be compelled to surrender them to the sovereign house of Hesse. Emperor Alexander carried them away with him to Petrograd, where they adorned the walls of the hermitage palace for the subsequent 100 years or more; indeed, until a few months ago.

Now they are at Berlin, and the Grand Duke Ernest of Hesse takes the ground that as heir to the estates and entailed property of the sovereign electorate of Hesse-Cassel he and his dynasty are entitled to the paintings. He is the greatest art lover among all Teuton rulers, and is therefore in a position to appreciate the extraordinary value of the paintings.

The fact that these paintings should be at Berlin is interesting in a number of respects. It had been feared that the wonderful collections of the two hermitage palaces at Petrograd had been destroyed by the populace in the revolutionary disturbances which have so repeatedly swept over the Muscovite metropolis on the Neva since the spring of last year.—Washington Post.

O, I'M A JOLLY SOLDIER!

ADA KYLE LYNCH.

I'm a soldier of the soil,
O, what joy it is to toil
In the ranks for Uncle Sam.
I'm up early in the morn,
Almost ere the day is born,
Join the ranks for Uncle Sam.

CHORUS.

O, I'm a jolly soldier, a soldier of the soil,
To the music of the song birds I march forth to my toil.
We can't all go "over there,"
Some are needed "over here."
So keep step in the plow-share trench,
Help them fill the ships with "fodder,"
For our soldiers over yonder,
And the English, the Italians and the French.

There's the plowing of the field,
Just to double up the yield
Of the crops for Uncle Sam.
There's the planting of the seed
And the hoeing of the weed,
To grow crops for Uncle Sam!

Chorus—

O, I'm a jolly soldier, etc.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

What Your Five Pints of Saliva a Day Does for You.

By DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University.)

The emotions act upon the various glands in diverse ways. The salivary glands, which manufacture the digestive fluids of the mouth and tongue, may be checked or made gushers according to the extent they are affected by cheer, joy, gayety or good feeling on the one hand, and fear, anger, worry, grief, sadness, misery or anxiety on the other.

An emotion or feeling is the result of a sensation, perception or memory, which affects the salivary, adrenal, thyroid or other glands. Each group of glands in the more complex animals such as man seem to be specifically susceptible to either pleasure or pain perceptions.

The salivary and the stomach glands are no exception to the rule. You lose your taste for food or your appetite at disturbing or irritating news, because the emotion stirred up is responsible for the impediment to the action of the glands.

Physiologists used to think that "centres" in the brain, when irritated or given an electric shock, will make saliva, gastric, thyroid or almost any other juice overflow. The conclusion drawn from this is false, that the nerves and the brain control the flow of such juices.

While this is partially true, it is a mechanical and very small part of the truth. The so-called "centres" are merely crowded areas, where special groups of message-paths accidentally come together.

TRUE DIGESTIVE JUICE.

The saliva flows from the openings of the glands in immense quantities. It forms an immense portion of the rations you swallow. Over five pints are made in a day.

Your awareness of what you perceive, a distinct psychological effect, is what alters the amount of saliva produced. Thus chewing, swallowing and eating are physiologically aided and abetted.

Saliva is a true digestive juice. It digests certain hydro-carbons or carbo-hydrates, such as the starches, and thus changes them into sugar.

A cheap substitute for sugar is starch. It is a marvel to me that the average person is not "hep" to the fact that a lump of starch dropped into coffee, soft drinks and the like will do as a substitute for sugar.

DOLLARS MUST AID LIBERTY'S CAUSE

FOUR MILLION MARK PASSED IN BOND SALE

Oakland has passed the four million mark in its Liberty loan subscriptions, and with honor flags and a ship bearing the city's name in sight there are being made extended efforts to keep up the present ratio of subscriptions, both in pledges and paid in advance.

In the contest for the honor of having a vessel of the United States merchant marine bear the name "Oakland" this city has been placed in class B and is leading with 25 per cent of its quota, paid in advance. The awards will be made to the cities showing the biggest percentages of over-subscription in the various classes.

The following percentages of quotas have been obtained by various districts of the county: Oakland, 32 per cent; Berkeley, 69 per cent; Alameda, 62 per cent; Emeryville, 53 per cent; Hayward, 27 per cent; Livermore, 60 per cent; Pleasanton, 22 per cent; San Leandro, 30 per cent; Washington Township, 35 per cent; county as a whole, 38 per cent.

QUOTAS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The following table shows the quotas and the subscriptions so far compiled by the committee:

District—	Quota.	Subscribed.
Oakland	$13,320,350	$4,298,100
Berkeley	2,351,700	1,614,850
Alameda ...	960,150	594,600
Emeryville .	86,250	46,250
Hayward ...	335,950	90,500
Livermore ..	258,700	157,350
Pleasanton ..	169,850	36,400
San Leandro.	300,500	115,850
Washington Township..	318,050	110,950
Totals	$18,191,500	$7,064,850

Two important Liberty loan meetings will be held during the present week, according to an announcement made at the Liberty loan headquarters this morning.

The first of these, which is to be held exclusively for the men workers of the home canvass department of the committee, will take place tomorrow evening in the Oakland Technical high school. The second meeting, which will be held under the auspices of the local unit of the national woman's Liberty loan committee at the Hotel Oakland. The latter meeting is open to the public and will take place during the noon hour on Saturday. Luncheon will be served at the same time.

Considerable interest is attached to the meeting which is to be held in the Technical high school as the purpose of it is to outline plans for combatting insidious pro-German propaganda which is being spread about this city at the present time, the object of which the Liberty loan committee declares is to defeat the fourth Liberty loan.

WORK ON FOREIGN-BORN.

According to the Liberty loan committee the pro-Hun propaganda is being directed principally at the foreign-born Americans. It is stated by the committee that evidences of it have been found among the local Chinese, Japanese, Serbians, Croatians, Italians and Danes. In effect this propaganda seeks to stimulate the mistaken idea that "the war is practically won," and that for this reason there is no necessity for the purchase of Liberty bonds.

At the luncheon meeting in the Hotel Oakland Saturday noon the principal speakers will be Congressman J. Arthur Elston, who has recently returned from a tour of inspection of the western front; Captain Walter Templar-Powell of the British army; Private J. C. Kelley, the wounded war hero of Chateau-Thierry, and Miss Maud Fulton, the actress. Besides the speakers Carl Edwin Anderson will lead the gathering in community singing and Mrs. Anderson will render a solo. Admission to the meeting will be by ticket.

BOOTS SHOWN ON FLOAT.

John Norton's Liberty loan poster, representing a pair of bloody German boots, under which appears the title "Keep These Off the U. S. A.," has been reproduced in plaster and mounted on a float, which in turn is carried on a flat car furnished by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railways.

The float is the work of F. Lopez, who is said to have built the big tank which was used by the Fresno Liberty loan committee during the third loan. The boots are ten feet high and measure seven feet from heel to toe. On either side of the boots Lopez has erected signboards which repeat the titles of the poster.

According to the Liberty loan committee the float will travel about the county from Albany to Hayward during the Fourth loan.

THESE ARE 100 PER CENT.

The following local institutions have been reported as 100 per cent establishments by the business and industrial department of the Liberty loan committee:

HOTEL THIEVES TRAPPED; GANG WORKED HERE?

That the San Francisco police have, in the capture of a gang of alleged hotel thieves across the bay, uncovered the mystery of the recent series of robberies at the Hotel Oakland, may be disclosed as the result of investigations now on. The police are searching through a large collection of assorted loot from various hotels, found in the possession of the woman and three men arrested, and said by the officers to cover robberies in the past few months. House Detective H. Mason of the Hotel Oakland has a full list of goods stolen at that hotel, and an attempt is being made to find some of these in the collection taken by the San Francisco police.

The Hotel Oakland robberies occurred over a period of several weeks, culminating in an attack by a supposed thief on Mrs. William Kelly, daughter of former Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont, when she found the man in her room, and a robbery in the rooms of George Damerel, an actor, when jewelry valued at several thousand dollars was taken.

The four arrested in San Francisco were taken at the St. Paul Apartments, 454 Larkin street, and are George Toelle, a curtain hanger, George Strobl, a waiter, his wife, Mrs. Lutge Strobl, and Carl Huver, a cook.

House Detective Matt Crawley of the Palace Hotel trailed the four and directed the arrests. Two taxicab loads of articles, alleged to have been stolen from the Palace, the Del Monte and other hotels, were taken to the police station with the four. Towels and linen bearing the marks of hotels as well as silverware and other goods are on the list. The woman and her husband, say the detectives, have confessed to some of the thefts.

The four were traced, says Crawley, after a series of robberies at the Palace, through shadowing all employees carrying pass keys.

Alamedans Active in Liberty Drive

ALAMEDA, Oct. 3.—According to late reports from Director-General Johnson of the Liberty Loan drive, 5519 residents of Alameda have subscribed for bonds with a total of $611,600.

The canvassers for the house-to-house campaign are enthusiastic in their work and realize that Alameda has a long way to go before she reaches her allotment of $960,150. Fraternal orders are taking up individual subscriptions and promise big returns. The Elks have a system of raising the quota, which they feel is necessary for the representation of their lodge in the drive, and will disclose the procedure later. The industrial plants are purchasing bonds, and tomorrow is pay day at several of the plants and a big corps of assistants has been requested, as the employees have signified their desire to invest in the bonds.

Ruse Wins Home For Seven Bar Against Children Is Battered

By EDNA B. KINARD.

She had seven children. The dwelling she had found on the thirteenth day of her vain search would answer as a home for the little tribe. The rent was possible.

"Have you children," non-committedly demanded the stern-eyed landlord.

"Faith, they do all be in the cemetery," sighed she. She became possessed of the key.

But at night seven wild, rollicking, laughing Irish boys and girls came home from the cemetery, hungry, noisy and curious as to how mother had found them a home.

But all mothers will not send their children to the cemetery for the day. Besides winter comes. However, it is taking ingenuity and tact to inveigle from a lot of Oakland property holders a shelter for those fathers and mothers who have given hostages to fortune. Men and women without children are clamoring for the few untenanted homes which remain and without exception have first choice. Also, preference is being given to them in many instances where houses are already rented by families in which young people are growing up. The problem has gone beyond the evasive point. It has become serious.

FEEL AS CRIMINAL

A stranger in the city the other day with two children and despair in her heart began determinedly to ring door bells to ask if the comfortable housewife who came to her door knew of any home she might rent where children were permitted. She was young and doubtful.

"They all told me motherhood was so wonderful," sighed she. "But everywhere I go they look at me as though I had committed a crime and will not let me in because of my two little girls. I simply do not know what to do unless I put them in a boarding school. I love them too much to do that." This is how serious the situation has become. Nor is it confined to districts nor yet classes. Children simply are not tolerated where adult tenants are found. There is no scarcity of them clamoring for accommodations in Oakland.

RELIEF IN SIGHT

The pressure of the women and the women's organizations upon those who make the laws which govern the city is being felt, and from out the great heart of them is bound to come some relief to motherhood, parenthood and childhood. Other municipalities have driven through the crisis by framing ordinances which protect tenants with families against the prejudice of the landlord. Oakland is getting into line. Technical legal points are being looked into and an ordinance prepared for presentation to the council which shall stand between the unpatriotic property owner and those who are doing their part by the state in making homes and right environments for the citizens who shall come after them.

But lawmakers will not make laws unless they are convinced that the people want the laws. If the motherhood and womanhood of Oakland is determined that mothers and children shall be justly protected in the security of their homes, mothers and women and organizations everywhere, personally and in groups, must let those men who have been elected to represent the people know their determination. This means that the commissioners will need to be told the mind of the Oakland women and mothers. They are waiting to hear it. Commissioner Jackson has expressed himself as willing to introduce such legal ordinance as is needed to meet the situation in fairness to property holders and to tenants.

NOT ALL GRASPING

All landlords, it must be remembered, are not the grasping, unthoughtful, unpatriotic kind that would exile children from their roof tree. Some even go so far as to welcome the family where little folks are. They quite frankly admit that a mother who must look out after her babies is the more apt to be at home and a better housekeeper. The conservation of the dwelling is not altogether a selfish desire.

It is the landlord who is taking advantage of the abnormal demand for houses, for increased rentals, for an elimination of children, at whom the movement is directed.

All the live children cannot go to the cemetery. Where can they go?

Berkeleyans Work Hard to Raise Quota

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—While Berkeley still leads the county with a total subscription to Fourth Liberty Loan bonds in excess of 60 per cent of its quota, the general committee today appointed a special committee to deal with slackers. The total today is $1,614,800.

"It looks as though a minority of Berkeleyans were carrying a preponderance of the burden of this drive," said Chairman W. F. Morrish. "It is not right that this condition should obtain and the committee proposes to obtain a good and sufficient reason from those who have not bought."

The Women's Army in the first day of their drive brought in $75,000 in subscriptions.

At the University of California the total received yesterday amounted to only $3150. Extended efforts are being made today to bring the total subscriptions at the University up to $50,000, although no quota has been fixed.

The factory district quota of $225,000 is expected to be exceeded by 40 per cent. The total pledged now amounts to $224,300.

Among the subscriptions received by the Berkeley committee are those from Albany. No quota was fixed by the general committee for Albany, but the sub-committee which is handling that city is making a drive to make it 100 per cent.

HUN AGENTS BUSY HERE TO RETARD LOAN

Pro-German influence is hampering the work of the Fourth Liberty Loan solicitors in Oakland, it was asserted today by B. F. Shapro, chairman of the home canvass department. The form of opposition most frequently adopted is that peace is at hand and that this government does not need any more money.

Shapro announces that steps will be taken to put a stop to this propaganda, and reiterate that the need of money to feed and equip the American soldiers in France is greater than ever. Shapro's statement is contained in a letter sent out in notification of an important meeting to be held tomorrow night.

HUN AGENTS AT WORK.

The letter says:

"Hun agents are actively at work in Oakland! Word is being insidiously passed: 'Peace is practically at hand; we don't need to buy Liberty Bonds.'

"Fellow workers, we know the truth; we know that the war is not yet won; the war is not over; peace may be a long ways off.

"The Government of the United States has given to the City of Oakland the task of seeing that its citizens subscribe in excess of $13,300,000 to the Fourth Liberty Loan, and OAKLAND MUST MAKE GOOD!

"The Hunnish influences in Oakland must be throttled at once!

WILL CHECK TRAITORS.

"Therefore, all men Liberty Bond workers (majors, captains and lieutenants) will assemble at a meeting (FOR MEN ONLY) at the Oakland Technical High School, Broadway and Forty-third street, Friday evening, October 4, at 8 o'clock sharp, where steps will be taken effectually to stop the work of the traitors in our midst.

"You will lay aside all business, canvassing and excuses and answer 'present' at the meeting Friday evening when your name is called. Remember, Liberty Loan workers compose the 'army behind the lines,' and when summoned to meeting or active duty in their precincts are expected to respond as soldiers of the United States of America.

"Wear your worker's badge of authority, and present yourself at the doors of the Oakland Technical High School promptly at 8 o'clock, Friday evening."

JUMPING AUTO TO THRILL AT IDORA SUNDAY

Here's a sensation to stir tired nerves.

A jumping automobile!

An automobile that will leap over three houses set in a row.

This is the thriller promised Idora Park throngs Sunday afternoon, promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

Speeding 50 miles an hour, the machine will shoot down a long incline and jump skyward, clearing three houses and covering a distance of 50 feet in the leap.

The event is FREE in the stadium at Idora Park Sunday afternoon.—Advt.

SOME men can afford to pay a great deal for a suit of clothes. Other men, because of war conditions, feel they must limit themselves to something less expensive. No matter what price you want to pay you can be properly taken care of at this store.

Here you will find a wonderful stock of the new Fall suits and overcoats for early autumn wear, and all you pay is $1.00 each week and small amount down. Hats, too, included on the same basis of payment. Will you be in today?

DAVE DAVENPORT WILL PITCH IN OAKLAND SUNDAY

Hot Argument Arises Among Shipyard Boys Over Game To Be Played Here Sunday

Brooks Claims Dave Davenport Is Unbeatable by Shipyard Teams

The Hanlon Shipyard team has gained for itself another bitter rival in the Shipbuilders' League race, and as a rival to Dan Hanlon's baseballers the Moore Shipyard team has nothing on the Alameda Bethlehems if the argument between a number of the Hanlon ball-players and Clarence Brooks, manager of the Alameda club, and several of his players is to mean anything. Big Dave Davenport, the pitcher who recently arrived from St. Louis, is to pitch for the Alameda club next Sunday, and that is why the argument started. Clarence Brooks and his ball-players, besides his loyal supporters did not believe that it was possible for any team in the Shipbuilders' League to win a game as long as Davenport was pitching, but they found out otherwise last Sunday when the Hanlons beat him 4 to 3. Hanlons and Alameda are scheduled to battle on the Oakland Coast League park next Sunday, and it is understood that some big wagers on the outcome of the game has been made. Billy Burke, Charley Carr, Billy Hollander and several others from the Hanlon yard were in on the big argument and they are ready to open their purse strings if it will help the Hanlon team to win. They all claim that Howard Gregory is the best and wisest pitcher now working on the Pacific Coast, and it is that kind of talk that had roiled Brooks and his other backers. Gregory was the pitcher in the box for Hanlons when they won last Sunday, and he will be pitted against Davenport in next Sunday's battle.

Everyone knows that Dave Davenport would not be held so long in the big leagues unless he was a good pitcher, but you cannot convince those boys at the Hanlon shipyard that he is a better man than Howard Gregory, especially since Davenport got beat by the Hanlon Club. In speaking of Davenport as a pitcher, "Speed" Martin yesterday remarked that the fans of the Pacific Coast never saw a greater pitcher than Dave. In taking his beating last Sunday, Davenport had the breaks going against him, as nearly all of the hits that were made off him were taps to the infield. Not one of the drives was a clean one. Now the Hanlons claim that Davenport is too clumsy to get out of his own way, but such is not the case, and the big fellow is likely to go out next Sunday and stand Bill Kelworthy and his boys on their heads. He is one grand pitcher and will surely be one of the biggest drawing cards that the Shipbuilders' league has. Charley Carr got so excited in the argument on the outcome of next Sunday's game that he said he would do anything to see Alameda beaten, and he will have the Hanlon shipyard band out in an effort to rattle big Dave. Looks like the past Moore-Hanlon tussels will only be a drop in the bucket alongside of next Sunday's game when it comes to showing fighting spirit.

The other game of the day will be played at San Francisco, with the San Francisco Bethlehems entertaining the Moore shipyard club.

Next Sunday the San Francisco Elks will travel to San Mateo and try to hand the Elks' team of that county the same dose of medicine that they received from the Oakland Elks last Sunday. It is one of the regularly scheduled games in the Elks' league. The Oakland Elks are not scheduled for a game, but will keep in trim by meeting some team at Bushrod Sunday afternoon. Doc Moskiman of Spaldings will atrange for the game. The Oakland Elks will play the San Francisco Elks on Columbus Day, October 12.

Hunters Will Soon Get Even With the Annoying Ducks

Quack! quack! quack! say the ducks that are now flying overhead in many sections of the State, and who are making many a hunter wish that the season for shooting was at hand. But be patient, Mr. Hunter, and do not do any firing at them until the season opens October 16, or else you may have a pretty expensive meal to pay for.

There will be plenty of good meals to be had after the opening day of the season, according to reports that come in from different parts of the State. The Fish and Game Commission has received encouraging news from the deputies, and indications point to many limit shoots for the opening days. Let the wild ducks fly around you for the next couple of weeks and then you will have a lot of chances to get even with them.

S. C. A. L. Basketball Schedule Arranged

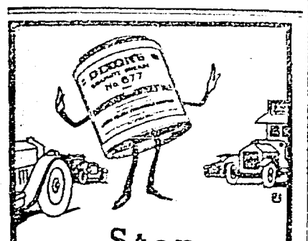

The Solano County Athletic league basketball schedule has been made public and the boys from the Vallejo high school will be kept quite busy from the 18th of October until the season comes to a close on December 1. Vallejo will play the Vacaville team at Vallejo on December 1 and many Vallejo enthusiasts believe that this game will decide the championship of Solano.

BARRY AND HALL DRAW.

Jim Barry and Jack Hall boxed a draw in the main event of the Association club's show in San Francisco last night. The bout was slow and very little damage was suffered by either boxer. Al Walker beat Charley Jones in the special event. Larry Lasher of Oakland won on a foul from Gene Young. Tom Driscoll lost a decision to Jack Blue. Baker and Stewart boxed a draw. Sterry lost to Thompson, and Cotton won from Remy.

FOGHORN MURPHY A FIREMAN.

Someday you may see Foghorn Murphy go buzzing along one of San Francisco's streets clanging a bell on one of the fire apparatus. The fellow who used to wake the baseball fans up to the fact that baseball games were being played in San Francisco and Oakland is now a member of the San Francisco fire department and is stationed at Truck Co. 9, at Twenty-fifth and Vermont streets.

News From Ball Players in Service

The following letter, written by Clyde Robinson to Frank Woodward, should be an interesting one for the fans to read, as it mentions several local boys now on the other side of the pond. Clyde was with the Money-Back Smith team of Oakland last season, as was Vic Corbett, the pitcher of whom he speaks in the letter. Harry Fusco is no stranger to the local bush fans, as he played with several local teams, besides the North Beach Federals of San Francisco. Harry Thollander is a son of Charles Thollander, manager of the Fruitvale team. Herb Gerlach played with the Oakland Natives No. 50 team.

France, Sept. 6, 1918.

Mr. F. H. Woodward,
Oakland, Calif.

Dear Friend:

Just a few lines to let you know we are "over here" and "raring" to go, and also remind you that I haven't forgotten your kindness in sending me papers. I had the folks send me The TRIBUNE and it has been coming quite regularly. Of course the papers are about a month old by the time they reach here. But, at that, it is some treat to get the "TRIB," and know what is going on in the old burg, some eight thousand miles away. I'll say "My City Oakland" is right there when it comes to launching ships. More power to 'em!

Run into Herbie Gerlach a short time ago. He is fine and sends his best regards to you. Says he intends writing you a letter if he ever gets a little spare time. Have met several of the boys in the past few days for the first time since leaving Camp Lewis. The companies of the regiment have been scattered about in different small villages since landing here but now we are all together again. We pitched tents in a large field and it's certainly a very pretty sight at night to see the little "dog tents" lined up and hundreds of lights flickering here and there. It's a great life at that, and I'm glad to be here, ready to do my little bit. They are expecting great things of the "Wild West Division" over here. It seems our reputation has preceded us across the pond, and I've a hunch we will show 'em something at that before we get through.

On account of the censorship there is very little I can say concerning the war or what we are doing. Played my first game of ball in France a few Sundays back. That is, I played part of a game as I had to quit at the end of the third on account of a lame foot. Vic Corbett was sent in as relief pitcher in the fourth inning, with the score 8 to 2 against him. He stood them on their heads the rest of the game and would have won his game if it wasn't for a couple of bad errors in the last inning. Harry Fusco played first and only hit two home runs and a double. Harry Thollander played third, and Herbie Gerlach short, so you see Oakland was well represented. I did not know any of the other players. We were playing with the Signal Corps against the Quartermasters. The final score was 11 to 10, and quite exciting. There was rather a large crowd watching us, mostly French, who seemed very much puzzled and interested, even if they didn't "compree."

Believe I've written enough for this time, hence will close, trusting this finds you enjoying the best of health. With kindest regards to yourself and all the boys, I remain, as ever,

Your friend,
CORPORAL CLYDE A. ROBINSON,
Hdqs. Co., 363rd Infantry, A. E. F., France, A. P. O. 776.

Erich L. Schreiber, well known to the bush fans of the bay cities as a member of the Maryland Bowlers, Oakland Commission Merchants and the Oakland Native Sons' teams, is now stationed at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, and writes the following. He joined the tankers or the "Treat 'Em Rough Boys," a little more than a month ago:

Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa.,
September 29, 1918.

Friend Ed: Sorry I didn't write sooner, but have sure been busy. I have been assigned to the 304th center tank corps company and moving around and getting clothes and everything keeps us pretty busy.

The boys of this company are sure a great bunch and we have lots of fun. The eats are swell and you can bet I get my share. Most of the boys are up town. We are in wooden barracks with tables, electric lights and everything is swell. We have to shave every day, whether we need it or not. Every night we can go to town and on Saturday we get off from noon until Sunday night at taps, which are blown at 10:30.

We now have our heavy uniforms and instead of overcoats the tank corps have sheepskins and they are swell. After the war I can keep mine to play ball in. We play here on Sundays and now they are starting a football team to represent the tank corps. There are about 7000 men in this camp and they ought be able to get a good club out of that bunch.

I haven't seen Ed. Geary yet and some of the boys say he left for Raleigh, North Carolina. That is the other tank corps camp. I don't know if we will go there, although we never know what to expect until the last minute.

Please thank Eileen again for the pen she gave me as it sure comes in handy. Remember me to the bunch at the office, also all of your family and the boys up town and don't forget Mr. Ambrose Furrer, and tell him I shall write soon. If you have Carl Brazzers' address send it to me; also ask Eddie McHenry's brother for Eddie's address as I would like to write to them both.

Drop me a line whenever you can as it is great to hear from people and friends when you are away from home.

Your friend,
ERICH.

Andrew "Red" Powers, who managed the Fruitvale team in the Midwinter league, seems to be getting a big kick out of the army life, for the redtop does not seem to be able to speak too good for it. He is now over in France, and ready to step to the front. The letter follows:

France, September 7, 1918.

Dear Friend Ambrose:

Well, Bro, my first chance to write since I left the states, so I am going to write to all the boys from now on.

We had a great trip coming over. Never had any bad weather. Ocean as calm as the San Francisco bay. Did not get bothered on the way over as Uncle Sam is a pretty smart fellow. In other words, the fellow who wrote that some about the long, long trail a-winding was sure a wise guy.

This is sure a great country. The climate is good, only we have plenty of rain, showers coming all the time. I am sure feeling great; never felt better in my life. Of course you have to feel pretty good or you will find the going pretty hard. Thought it would get me at first but am still staying with it, and expect to stick. Things went good for me on the way over.

I met "Tillie" Ferrari and Archie Reibart on the way over. Archie is still the same kid, wants to sleep and eat all the time. Not a change in him. "Tillie" played pedro or whist all the way over on the boat. "Frenchie" Weber is with us. My battery beat his 1-1 last Sunday. "Frenchie" played short against us. I never played as I was left in quarters all day.

All there is in this country is girls. All the young fellows are in the army.

The girls treat us very good. Not stuck up. Willing to talk to you if you can make them understand. Too much a language for me.

Well, Bro, things are pretty good over here. Would like to tell you what I think about the war, but it's against orders.

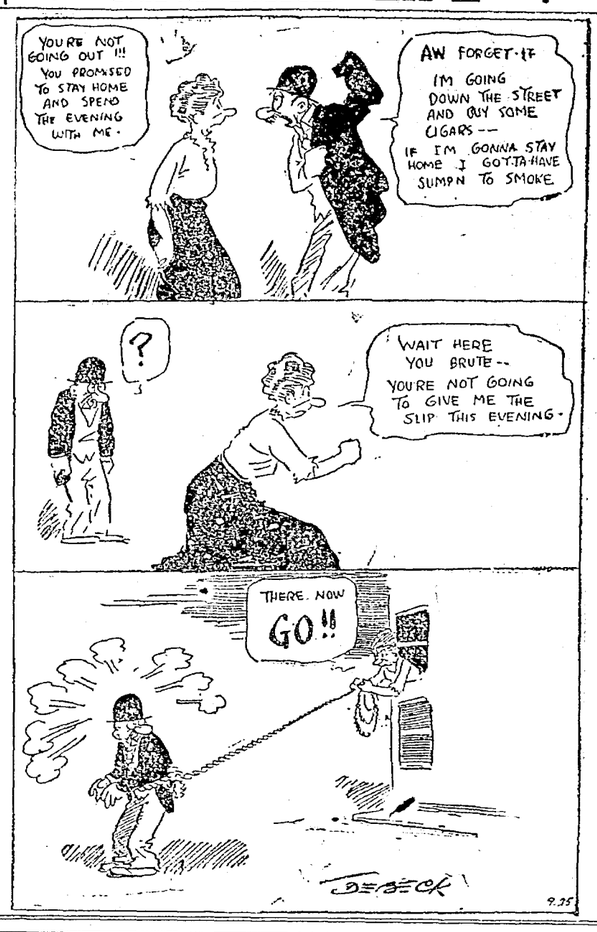

Going to close now so this letter will leave on this delivery, and don't forget to write, for there is nothing like receiving a letter in this game. Give my regards to all the boys. Tell "Toots" Bankhead or Al Parthold or Graves they can expect a letter in a short while. Time is getting short now, so will have to close. My regards to your wife.

Your friend,
"REDDY."

My address is: Private Andrew Emil Powers, F Battery, 346 F. A., American Ex. Forces.

Give the boys my address.

ROHAN TELEPHONES TO JACK KEARNS AT PHILADELPHIA IN TRYING TO GET DEMPSEY

Next Wednesday night Jimmy Rohan, matchmaker for the Shipbuilders' Athletic Association will be able to announce if Jack Dempsey will be on the next card to be arranged for the Shipbuilders' Association. It looks like the Shipbuilders are to put some big things over, now that they have been re-organized, as it was by a long distance telephone call to Philadelphia last night that Rohan was able to get into conversation with Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey.

Dempsey is to box Battling Levinsky next Wednesday night at New York, and Kearns has promised to give Rohan his answer immediately after the bout. If Dempsey is secured, Sam Langford will be his opponent at the Oakland Auditorium either October 20 or 22.

Meehan Now Has Kruvosky To Worry Him

Fellow Who Meets Murray Tomorrow Night Is After Willie.

Another challenger for Willie Meehan has bobbed up in the person of Knockout Kruvosky, the San Francisco battler, who went to Portland and defeated Frank Farmer a few night's ago. The big fellow who was figured to have reached his highest ambitions as a boxer, has taken a lot of confidence in himself since beating Frank Farmer, and now he honestly believes that he is entitled to a match with Willie Meehan, another of San Francisco's boxers.

It is seldom that you hear of two boys from the same town making a bid for the heavyweight championship, but that is just what looks to be in sight with Kruvosky making a bid to meet Meehan. Kruvosky already holds a decision over Willie Meehan, and to the San Francisco boxing fans he has enough good fight left in him to give Meehan a tussle. Kruvosky will step into the ring at Dreamland rink in San Francisco tomorrow night and fight his hardest to beat Fighting Billy Murray. Murray and Kruvosky are billed to furnish the main event for the Allied promoters, and with Kruvosky anxious to make a good showing before his home town fans it would seem that Murray is in for a merry time. Reports from the northwest where Kruvosky defeated Frank Farmer say that the San Franciscan put up a great fight and gave Farmer one of his worst beatings.

Murray beat Spud Murphy last week which is quite a feather in the cap of the lad who is almost counted as through, and he wants to remain for a while at least as one of the top-notch boys of his weight. Murray has done a great come back by some hard training and it will be tough on him if he is set back tomorrow night by Kruvosky. From both sides of things, it looks like a good battle is in store at Dreamland rink when the two big fellows take the ring.

Good Turnout Of Athletes At St. Mary's

First Day of Football Practice Brought Out Good Number.

If anyone thinks that St. Mary's college lacks the talent to make up a football team this season they are badly mistaken, for the first call for practice which was the other day, saw thirteen athletes turn out in answer and that is the most that has turned on a first practice day in several years. Since that call the number of athletes trying for positions on the gridiron team has increased, and Russell Wilson hopes to secure a strong squad to represent the college team.

Wilson is the coach that aided the collegians in scalping the University of California team last season, and he believes that the performing of the trick this year will be much easier. But Wilson may find himself talking a little too early, as Coach Andy Smith at the University of California does not seem to be worrying in the least over the prospect of the university having a good team, and he always seems to be in a happy mood when speaking of the 1918 football hopes. More than 100 boys are attending at St. Mary's college and Coach Wilson figures he should get a fast squad from them, especially with the physically fit boys being better known because of the military work going on at the college.

It is late in the season for Wilson to be starting his team-building, but with the boys all reporting in good shape, it should not be long before they will be ready to go out after big games. The talk about the marines of Mare Island having a game scheduled with the collegians seems to be nothing but a rumor, and if any such game was arranged, none of the boys at the college know anything about it.

Sports Committee Thanks The Tribune

Editor TRIBUNE:—On behalf of the Sports' Committee in Oakland, as well as the athletic officers of Mare Island and Goat Island, we wish to take this means of thanking you for the excellent publicity we received from your sports page, which so greatly assisted in making the football game of last Saturday such a financial success for "The Boys."

Besides appropriating one hundred to the Defenders' club, the committee was able to turn over more than eight hundred dollars to each athletic officer for the athletic fund.

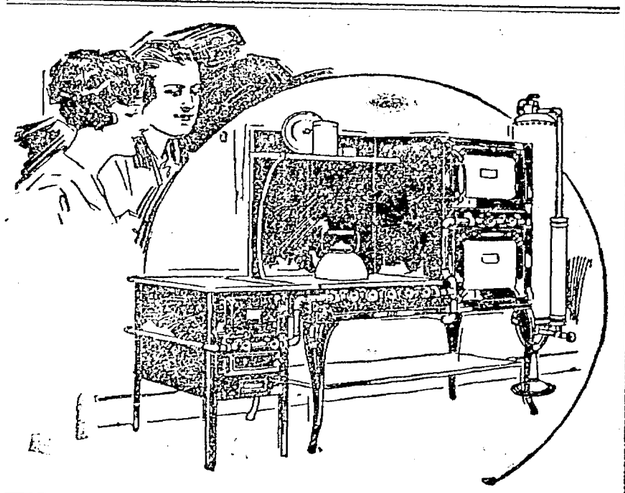

Sincerely,
WALTER CHRISTIE,
J. B. NASH,
FRANK WOODWARD,
ALEXANDER STEWART,
C. R. GRIMMET,
Committee.

Joe White and Phil Salvadore to Box at Sacramento

Phil Salvadore and Joe White will be the main eventers of the show to be staged tomorrow night at Sacramento under the auspices of the Capital City Athletic club and for this bout Salvadore is coming all the way from San Pedro where he is stationed at a submarine base.

The Sacramento fans have not witnessed any good bouts for several weeks and the event of White and Salvadore should be a good attraction. Salvadore is a Sacramento boy and will probably be the favorite to win. Still White will have some supporters among the Sacramento fans because of his fine showing at that town some time ago when he beat Willie St. Clair.

A Chicago item states that the profits of the Chicago National League club the past season will be, all told, about $10,000. To reap that reward all the backers of the Cubs have to do in the past four years is to spend something like a million and a half.

Shippings Carry List Higher Several Specialties Also Sought

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The stock market today threw off many of the restraints imposed by recent war developments, shippings and numerous specialties elevating the list to substantially higher levels.

The strength of specialties, particularly tobacco, shippings and oils, lifted the lists to higher levels in the first half hour, the usual leaders showing little change. Gains among specialties were from one to six points. Rails were conspicuously dull and irregular.

Greater breadth attended the progress of the session, the market becoming somewhat unsettled at the second hour. There was a marked reduction of the recent inquiry for rails, but shippings and coppers were firm to strong. In the bond market French government 5½s held at the year's maximum and Russian government's 5½s and 6½s rose 3½ to 4 points, respectively, to the highest levels of the year.

A varied assortment of issues were singled out for bullish attention in the early afternoon notwithstanding the persistent heaviness of steel. Shippings were foremost in the general rally of the active final hour, oils, gas, tobaccos and motors participating in variable degree. The closing was strong.

Movement of prices at various periods of today's trading is analyzed in detail in the following:

OPENING—After a steady opening in which a few issues showed slight declines, the market developed a strong tone and in the first 15 minutes vigorous advances were made in many issues. The tobacco stocks as a group were unusually active, Tobacco Products moving up 1⅛ to 72, Cigar Stores up to 103½ and American Sumatra 2⅛ to 112½. The oil stocks also were in demand, with Mexican Petroleum making a gain of 1¼ to 121¾ and Texas Oil advancing 1 to 184. Studebaker reflected continued accumulation, advancing one point to 58½. The steel stocks fluctuated within narrow limits. Steel common moved up from 109⅞ to 110¼. Baldwin rose ⅝ to 86 and American Locomotive made a gain of ¼ to 66½. The railroad stocks were quiet and without material change.

FORENOON—A drive by bear operators to force liquidation caused declines of around one point in many stocks, but there was a buying power of sufficient value to provide lodgment for all the offerings. Baldwin, after dropping over one point to 84¾, rallied to 86, and similar upturns, after recessions, were made in the other steel issues. The shipping stocks were exceptionally strong, Marine preferred moving up 1⅝ to 108, while United Fruit advanced over five points to above 145. There was some demand for the copper stocks, Anaconda selling up to above 70. American Telephone was alos strong, showing a gain of 1¾ points at 103½. The tobacco issues maintained most of their early gains.

AFTERNOON — The market was steady in the afternoon. Steel common rose to 109⅞ from the low of 109¼ and Baldwin rallied to 86¼ and Bethlehem "B" to 74⅞. The tobacco issues declined somewhat, American Sumatra dropped from 112 to 110⅝. United Cigar Stores dropped from 103¼ to 102½, and Tobacco from 72 to 71. Marine preferred was exceptionally strong, moving up on large dealings to 108⅝. Mexican Petroleum rallied two points to 121⅛ and Distillers moved up over one point to 49.

CLOSING—The market closed strong. Government bonds were unchanged; railroad and other bonds steady. The marine issues were the chief feature in the late dealings. Marine preferred sold up nearly five points to 111¼, but declined in the last few minutes, closing at 110¾, while the 6 per cent bonds were finally 100⅝. Steel common was finally 109¼, Baldwin 85¾, Bethlehem Steel "B" 74⅝, Tobacco 70½, United Cigars 102½ and Union Pacific 127. Sales, 540,500 shares; bonds, $9,328,000.

Liberty bond closing; 3½s, 100.14; first convertible 4s, 96.25; second 4s, 96.36; first convertible 4¼, 96.30; second convertible 4¼s, 96.44; third 4¼, 96.70.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The bank clearings for today are $21,371,935.05.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Favorable war news led to new declines today in the corn market. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1¼c lower, with November $1.28@1.29, and December $1.26⅜@1.26¾, were followed by a sharp setback all around and then something of a reaction.

Covering by shorts subsequently carried the market well above yesterday's finish, but exaggerated reports about Turkey resulted in a sudden new break. The close was unsettled, ⅛@1½c net lower, with November $1.29⅛@1.29¼, and December $1.26¾@1.26⅞.

Oats reflected changes in corn. After opening ¾c off to ¼c advance, with October 68¼@68¾c, the market underwent a general sag and later rallied.

Lower quotations on hogs made provisions weak.

THE CLOSE.

Corn—Nov., $1.29⅛; Dec., $1.26¾.
Oats—Nov., 69c; Dec., 69¾c.
Pork—Oct., $36.30; Nov., $36.80.
Lard—Oct., $26.65; Nov., $25.70.
Ribs—Oct., $22.65; Nov., $22.60.

SPOT PRICES.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, $1.55; No. 3 yellow, $1.42@1.48; No. 4 yellow, $1.35.
Rye—No. 2, $1.62½. Barley, 90c@$1.02. Timothy, $7.50@10.00. Clover, nominal.

HOLDS COURT AT NIGHT, PRESIDING IN GHOST CASES

All night long last night Charles F. Harding, 83-year-old war veteran and inmate of the county infirmary, held court in Judge Joseph S. Koford's chamber, examining briefs from Judge J. J. Trabucco's chambers. Along toward morning he went to sleep in the judge's comfortable chair, where he was found this morning.

The old man must have been overlooked whe nthe courthouse doors were closed last night. After every one was gone from the building he went about presiding for a time in each of the departments, laying down the law to the ghosts of cases that have gone.

Then he went into Judge Trabucco's chamber and ransacked a suitcase, taking a number of briefs and law books, a whisk broom and other articles and adjourned court downstairs to Judge Koford's department for the rest of the night.

He was sound asleep with his head on the suitcase and the broom in his hip pocket when the janitor came in.

"Reading the law must have taken me back to my school days and to my second childhood," he said in explanation.

The old veteran will likely be returned to the hospital.

Dock and Deck

A new wooden steamer launched last March at a British port is reported today as arriving in tow at a Panama port. Her machinery became disabled and another steamer picked her up and took her in tow. She was on her maiden voyage and under the British flag. Repairs will be made before she can continue her trip.

A local passenger ship leaving a Pacific port for a coastwise port ran into and cut a launch in two. The crew was rescued by the large craft and landed ashore, while the launch sank. The steamer proceeded on her way. The accident was caused by a thick fog.

Captain Charles W. Schuler of Oakland has been appointed master of the ferry steamer Alameda, and began his duties today. He has received many congratulations from his friends and fellow employees upon his promotion. Schuler is known by all as the "smiling kid."

Fifty-one Scotch marine boilers have been ordered at Portland, Oregon, for the new vessels now under construction on the Pacific coast. They are valued at $1,120,000. Other boiler shops in different parts of the United States are running with double crews and have all the orders they can attend to for months to come.

Fishermen who have been in Alaskan waters during the summer, who shipped from Puget Sound and Oregon, are leaving there for California on every steamer that sails south. Several of them arrived at Oakland yesterday and a number are due on another craft coming here this week.

Captain Lancaster, with his 36 apprentices on board, arrived at an Oriental port after a long trip of 82 days. Many of these apprentices were shipped from Oakland, where their folks reside. According to reports the trip was pleasant and all are well.

The thick fogs which have been causing considerable trouble to navigators from Cape Flattery, British Columbia, to southeastern Alaskan waters, are still holding on, and all vessels are delayed in arriving at their destination. They claim this fog is the thickest they have ever experienced.

George E. Billings & Co. has purchased the five masted schooner Henry K. Hall. The craft is well known here and has been used in the off-shore lumber trade. She carries a cargo of one and one-half million feet of lumber.

Captain Harry Henderson, who for many years commanded the schooner Golden Shore, has again returned to sea. He retired about 10 years ago and purchased an interest in an orchard with his brother at Watsonville, where he has resided ever since. He will take command of the schooner J. W. Wells, owned by McCormick Steamship Co.

If you saw it in The TRIBUNE, tell them so. Thank you.

ELSTON WILL TELL OF TRIP TO FRONT

Congressman J. A. Elston will describe at the Municipal Auditorium tomorrow night the visit of himself and his party of Congressmen to the French front, and how they had to scamper for cover when the guns got their range and began raining shrapnel around them.

"Oakland in the Movies" will be another big feature. This will be a free exhibition of motion pictures which have been taken under the direction of the Publicity Bureau of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. A dance will be given in the Auditorium ballroom, which will be open to the public.

The Chamber of Commerce day will begin with a luncheon in the Commercial Club rooms to be followed by a parade of the Chamber of Commerce men to the Land Show.

The rest of the afternoon will be given over to visiting various exhibits. The program follows:

12:15 p. m.—Luncheon in Commercial Club rooms.

1:30 p. m.—Parade of members to Land Show grounds.

2:00 to 6:00 p. m.—Inspection of Land Show exhibits.

8:00 p. m.—Address in Auditorium theater by Congressman J. Arthur Elston, on "The Experiences of a Civilian on the Western Front." H. C. Capwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside.

"Oakland in the Movies," Auditorium Theater, after Congressman Elston's address.

9:00 p. m.—Dance in Auditorium ballroom (third floor) open to the public. Don't fail to go.

GARBAGE PROBLEM SOLUTION FOUND

Solution to the garbage problem, which had become so grave that the scavengers had served notice on the city council that they would cease hauling garbage next Saturday night unless definite action was taken, was in sight today following a conference between the city council and D. W. Bingham, sanitary engineer in charge of this district for the United States Shipping Board. The solution proposed by Bingham after an inspection of the western waterfront was the use of Twenty-second street extended westerly across the tracks of the Southern Pacific Company by a planked roadway and out to the mud flats, where the garbage would be dumped and immediately covered with sand by means of a sand pump.

Mayor Davie and Engineer Bingham made arrangements to go before the State Railroad Commission this afternoon to obtain the necessary permit for a crossing at Twenty-second street. A flagman will be placed there to protect the garbage teams crossing the tracks.

Tom Ferro, representing the scavengers, said that his association would give the council an additional fifteen days to provide this roadway, and that if it was not in use by that time, they would quit hauling garbage. He said they had been attempting to get action from the council for the past four months, and that the present arrangement necessitates their working from 5 a. m. till 8 p. m., because of the roundabout and difficult route to the dumps.

The council appropriated $21,000 to the harbor fund for repairs to the Fourteenth street trestle and for necessary expenditures in carrying out the work of providing a roadway to the garbage dumps. The fund will be handled by the Commissioner of Public Works. The money was provided by transfers of $11,000 from the contingency fund and of $10,000 from the public betterment fund.

Council Will Watch First Keel Laying

The Union Construction Company today invited the members of the city council to attend the first keel-laying at the new shipyard on the Key Route Basin, which is to be held Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. The invitation was accepted. The vessel, the keel of which is to be laid Saturday, must be completed by next February. The company expects to have the contract completed in record time.

Axle Is Broken in Avoiding Collision

In avoiding colliding with an automobile driven by Mrs. C. Hampton, 2219 Valley street, Police Chauffeur Ed F. Hughes turned sharply to the right and smashed into the curb, breaking the axle of the police automobile. Hughes reported tha the was going at a moderate rate of speed, but tthat the auto in front of him turned suddenly without warning, and that the only way to avoid accident was by swerving into the curb.

LOCAL BOYS GIVE NATION THEIR LIVES

Two more Oakland boys, Lieutenant Morley S. Oates and Private C. E. Lewis, have lost their lives in action, according to word received by relatives.

Lieutenant Oates was a member of the 119th field artillery and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oates, 4404 Evans avenue. He was killed in action on September 22, according to a telegram received this week by his family. For the last four years Oates has made his home with his brother, Major R. Oates, in Lansing, Mich. He then enlisted with the First Michigan field artillery, going in 1916 to the Mexican border with the Lansing batteries, where he won the rank of corporal. Before the United States declared war these batteries were reorganized. Oates received his commission as lieutenant on Christmas day. He was 21 years of age. He was educated in Oakland, where the Oates family has resided for many years.

Private Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lewis, 5522 Adeline street. Previously he had been reported as missing in action, but confirmation of the belief that he had been killed came in a telegram from the war department.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Listed among the seriously wounded in battle, the name of Robert Brooks, brother of Mrs. Philip Krepper of Albany, is included in yesterday's casualties coming from the war department.

Young Brooks was wounded once previously, although not seriously, and has been in the thick of fighting on the western front for some months past. He left for France with a draft contingent from Mayhews, Sacramento county, where his parents have extensive ranching interests.

Brooks is one of two brothers at present fighting in France. His sister, Mrs. Krepper, is at present visiting at the family home in Mayhews.

Lieutenant Frank B. Cook, who was severely wounded in action August 11, is in a base hospital near Paris, convalescing satisfactorily, according to information which has come to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, 1831 Tenth avenue. Lieutenant Cook was shot in the leg, taken to a dressing station and while being transferred to the hospital a shell burst over the ambulance, instantly killing the driver and wounding the fallen officer in the arm. It is this wound which is considered most serious. Lieutenant Cook enlisted immediately on the declaration of war, winning his commission in the training camp at Vancouver Barracks. He has been fighting in France six months.

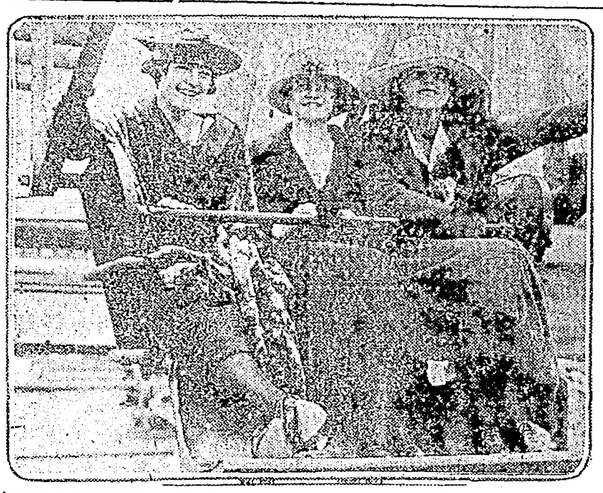

DEATH IS CONFIRMED.

Confirmation has come to Mrs. Amelia Edwards, 1540 Sixth avenue, of the death of her son, Private Carl Edwards, Company G, 16th Infantry. He died on July 28 from wounds received in action. Edwards was reported killed on July 3. Later he was placed in the lists of those wounded. This week the final notification came which left no doubt as to his fate.

Other Californians are listed in the latest casualty report. They are:

Died of wounds, Pietro Sturla, San Francisco; wounded severely in action, Major George F. Shiels, San Francisco; Private Joseph A. Allettl, Petaluma; Edward E. Comstock, Sacramento; missing in action, John D. Black, San Francisco; Roy Lowell, Rio Bravo; killed in action (previously reported missing) C. K. Powell, Claremont; killed in action, Vencenzo Russo, Los Banos.

Know How Pigeons Can Make Money? See It at Land Show

LOOK HAPPY, DON'T THEY? THEY'RE ON THE ZONE AT THE LAND SHOW!

Big Exhibit Is Lesson in Conservation

Like pigeons?

Know what they are, how they eat, fight—or how they make money for the owner?

A pigeon is very like a gold mine, if you know how to handle him—and if you drop over to the Land Show you can find out.

For the pigeon, poultry and rabbit show is now on.

You can learn at this big show how to start with a setting of eggs and build a fortune.

You can learn how a few rabbits in a back yard will keep a family in food or spending money.

And, better than that, you'll be gloriously entertained while learning.

The pigeon show is the biggest thing of its kind Oakland has ever seen. All varieties of fine birds with fine feathers, champion egg-layers, special breeds—all kinds of 'em. Same with poultry and rabbits—they're an education in themselves.

The big show closes Sunday with awards of prizes and presentation in the court of democracy. This was put over from Saturday, when it was originally scheduled, to make room for other attractions. Sunday, the climax of the Land Show will be a glorious day of mirth and big features—the Royal Hawaiian quartet, the big ball, war pictures. Steindorff's band, and other things—also the zone.

Just three days more.

WEDDING IS HELD

One of the big features of the show last night, under the auspices of the Home Industry League, was the public wedding, when Miss Leona Drew and F. Padekan, a shipyard worker, were married in the Home Industry Booth by "Big Bill" Kramer, the famous San Jose clergyman. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Barry of 588 Twentieth street.

The couple were presented with many gifts by the exhibitors at the Home Industry Booth.

CHAMBER TO ATTEND

Tomorrow will be "Chamber of Commerce Day" at the Land Show. Every member of the chamber has been invited to attend, the chamber sending out complimentary tickets to its members. A luncheon will be held at the Commercial Club grill at 12:30 o'clock, after which the members will proceed to the show. Special exercises are planned for the evening.

WANT RED CROSS BUILDING SIMPLE

The committee in charge of arrangements for erecting the new Red Cross building on the City Hall Plaza, R. B. Ayer, chairman, met yesterday, with the representatives from all departments of the Red Cross organiaztion to go over the plans, as presented by William Knowles, architect, who is volunteering his services.

The plans were acceptable as to arrangement, but were considered too elaborate as to detail.

"Inasmuch as the building will remain on the site only so long as the war and the immediate result of the war require its existence, it is unnecessary and criminal to spend one cent beyond the bare cost of erecting a plain, sanitary building, suitable for housing all the activities of the Red Cross," said H. C. Capwell, chairman of the committee on requirements.

It was the consensus of opinion of the committee that the proposed building should also accommodate war activities during the various drives. A sub-committee comprising R. B. Ayer, H. C. Capwell and R. A. McWilliams, was appointed, to confer with Knowles as to the feasibility of eliminating all unnecessary features from the present plans, such as plate glass, flagpoles, etc., and erecting a building suitable to meet all requirements but without expensive decorative details.

Work on the structure will be rushed as soon as the plans are remodeled and accepted by the Red Cross.

Tribune Thanked by Salvation Army

Editor TRIBUNE: We wish to thank you for the two mentions of the Salvation Army "trench supper" you made in The TRIBUNE last week. A splendid crowd was present, and it was a success from almost every point of view—and this was largely due to the publicity given, and the same is appreciated.

Yours very truly,
THE SALVATION ARMY.

Vesper Services at Y. W. C. A. to Resume

After a prolonged vacation the Young Women's Christian Association is resuming the regular Sunday afternoon vesper services. This Sunday, at 5:30 o'clock, will be the first this fall. Miss Evelyn Chasteen, attended the camp conference at Asilomar, and she, with others who were there, will bring facts about the session. Miss Hazel Green will speak on "Asilomar, Its Spirit and Inspiration." Miss Dutchess will give "Aims and Ideals of Our Work Here and Over There." Miss Myrl Estelle Dale will speak on "Relationships." There will also be special Asilomar music.

ASKS $30,000 DAMAGES.

Thirty thousand dollars damage for the death of Attilio Magnone is demanded in a suit filed by Dr. H. B. Mehrmann, administrator of the estate of the deceased, against L. L. Swenson. It is alleged that the death was caused by the defendant's automobile.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After several applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Advertisement.

3 CASHIERS CHARGED WITH LOOTING BANK

On complaints issued by United States Commissioner Thomas E. Hayden, alleging the heaviest defalcations in the history of any national bank on the Pacific Coast, Frank A. Brush, cashier, and H. K. Loughery and William C. Grant, assistant cashiers of the Santa Rosa National Bank, were placed under arrest at their Santa Rosa homes last night. Bail was promptly secured in the sum of $25,000 each and the three men are at liberty.

W. C. Grant is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Grant, 764 Fifty-sixth street, Oakland.

The defalcations amount to $800,000, according to the information obtained by Federal commissioners. The money is said to have been used principally by Brush in speculation and high living in anticipation of momentary inheritance of approximately a million dollars from his father, Captain J. H. Brush, president of the bank.

PASS BUCK TO BRUSH.

Both Grant and Loughery made a statement in which they say that whatever money they diverted from the bank was in the interest of protecting Brush, and at his instigation. Most of the money drawn from the bank recently on substituted forged securities is said to have gone in a hopeless effort to recoupt the fortunes of the bank's cashier.

The defalcations extend over a period of more than two years. The first complaint, sworn to by Special Assistant United States Attorney-General John W. Preston, charges Grant and Loughery with abstracting from the bank between January 1, 1916, and September 30, 1918, $325,000, without the knowledge or consent of the directors of the bank.

The second complaint charges Brush with converting to his own use during the same period the sum of $350,000, and on May 24, 1918, of converting $32,392.42.

The third complaint charges Grant in three separate counts, of having misappropriated $5015.99 on May 24, 1918; $5500 on December 31, 1917, and $3600.60 on May 17, 1918.

The fourth complaint charges Loughery with the defalcation of $6701.27 on January 5, 1918.

"LOANED" TOO HEAVILY.

The Union Savings Bank of Santa Rosa is owned by the same men who own the First National, and has the same set of officers. Its condition is not affected. The First National Bank closed its doors on September 30, assigning as the reason that they had loaned too heavily.

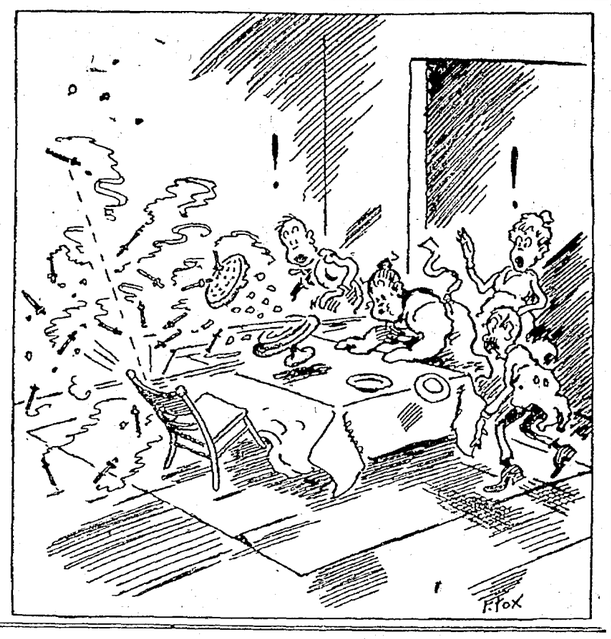

It is announced that the depositors will not suffer. Captain J. H. Brush, president of the bank and father of Frank A. Brush, has assigned his property, amounting to $700,000, to secure the depositors, and his son turned over $200,000 worth of property.

The institution is in charge of Oscar Thompson, national bank examiner. It was stated that the bank will likely reopen shortly.

Brush was released on bonds secured by Joseph T. Grace, brewer, and George C. Schilling, garage owner. Grant's bondsmen are C. A. Patrick, wood dealer, and T. F. Brownscombe, city superintendent of schools. Loughery's bondsmen are J. Elmer Mobley, editor of the Santa Rosa Republican, and Joseph Thomas of Sebastopol.

All three men are married and have families, and for a number of years have held the respect and confidence of the community.

They told the Powerful Katrinka it was good luck to blow out all the birthday candles at once.

Gibson Orders Work Begun On Barracks

Contracts were closed today for barracks to house Uncle Sam's boys who will train at Polytechnic College, President W. E. Gibson having received authorization to prepare to give special instruction to 800 men. Arrangements have been made for drill grounds at the Auditorium.

The college will have a contract for housing and feeding these men and they will be divided into eight different groups, representing different courses, the special work being surveying, topographical drawing, machine shop work, automobile mechanics, radio, electrical construction, chauffeurs and oxy-acetylene welding.

President Gibson has been negotiating with the government officials for some time and arrangements were finally closed yesterday.

ENGINES WAIT FOR HULLS TO ARRIVE

At the Barnes-Tibbetts shipbuilding plant on the estuary boilers and machinery for three wooden hulls await installation. At wooden shipbuilding yards at Portland twelve hulls are awaiting machinery and boilers. To date it appears to be impossible to get the machinery to the hulls or the hulls to the machinery.

The plan hitherto has been to construct wooden hulls at the northern yards and forward them to Eastbay and San Francisco plants for their machinery equipment. Two ships have thus been outfitted at the Barnes-Tibbetts plant and turned over to the government. The Coos Bay, first of the ships delivered, was outfitted with her machinery in the remarkable short time of 28 days. The Ballfette, which had her trial trip Monday, was outfitted in a like period of time. Both are of 3500 tons register.

Another hull has been promised the Barnes-Tibbett management not later than October 15. In the meantime J. H. Powers, foreman, and his crew of mechanics are marking time. This crew is reputed to be the fastest and best on the Pacific coast. Its record of outfitting a ship with machinery in 28 days exceeds by a third the best time made by the crews in other plants.

War-time Service in a Stylish Street Shoe

WOMEN, even more than men, reflect the spirit of the times in what they use and wear.

There is a demand throughout America for a woman's shoe of service, of comfort, of economy. A shoe that looks smart on the foot and yet meets or anticipates the Government's desire to eliminate needless extravagance of wasteful frivolity in dress.

Our way of meeting this demand is another triumph for Regal shoemaking. It shows the value of the Regal policy of concentration. Our whole organization is engaged in producing a few styles that most people want, rather than a lot of styles that few people want.

This literally means quantity production of a few highly specialized types—and America is fast learning the value of that in every commodity from shoes to ships.

This Wellesley boot (illustrated) is an example of the advantages of this Regal concentration policy. It is made of Cordo Russia selected side leather, with top eight inches high and a one-and-a-half-inch Cuban heel. It is one of the smartest street shoes of the season—a day-by-day shoe; the mainstay of a woman's shoe equipment. The price is $7.00

It is easy to pay too little as well as pay too much for shoes. Regal Shoes provide a safe middle course—good shoes at a price you are justified in paying.
